

A Year In Rewind

Crusader 2003

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2010 with funding from Lyrasis Members and Sloan Foundation

<http://www.archive.org/details/crusader200300unse>

Smith/Rouse Library
William Carey College
Hattiesburg, MS

The Crusader

2002-2003

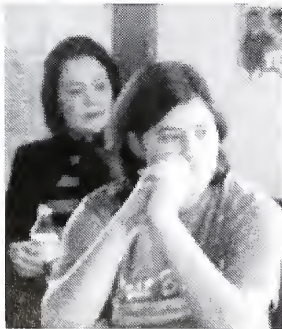

“A Year in Rewind”

William Carey College

Gulfport Hattiesburg New Orleans

Back Row: Andrew Dale, Mitchell Smith and Dr. Kathie Chute; Middle Row: Dustin Benge, Ashley Mayo, Renee Estes and Keisha Beaseley; Front Row: Joy Stodghill and Anne Brinkman; Not Pictured: Michelle Avery, Rachel George and Stacey Hicks

(above) Keisha Beaseley remains attentive, despite her sleepiness in a weekly yearbook meeting. Dr. Chute also looks on at the proceedings.

(above) Rachel George and Joy Stodghill work busily to meet the demanding deadlines. Or are they checking their emails again?

(above) Stacey Hicks listens to the co-editor, Dustin Benge, give instructions on yearbook chores and deadlines.

(below) Renee Estes, Ashley Mayo and Andrew Dale appear to be listening attentively. In truth, their minds are swirling with ideas and plans.

(above) Anne Brinkman works hard to make a sign announcing yearbook sales. Yearbook staff members are quite familiar with the paint room.

Crusader Staff...

Rewind to work and deadlines

Putting out a yearbook is never easy. Changing the look of one is even harder.

After my first round of being editor of the publication the year before, I was ready to come back and begin work on the new edition of The Crusader.

I was proud of the yearbook we had published the year before. However, I felt that there was still much room for improvement. I wanted this publication to be enjoyable for readers and give students a sense of pride in their school.

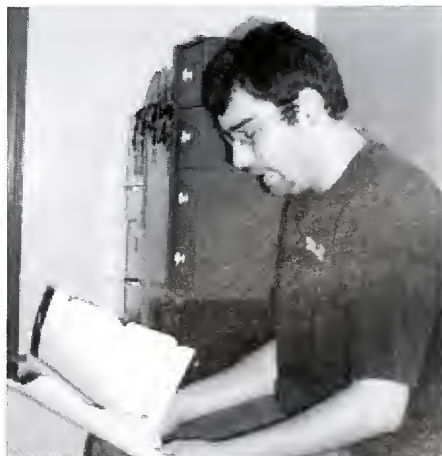

After much hard work and many late hours, I feel the 2002-2003 edition of The Crusader, "A Year in Rewind," accomplishes that goal.

I hope that as you look through the pages of this annual, you are able to sit back and "rewind" through all the memories of the past year.

I would like to express the yearbook staff's gratitude to the administration, faculty, staff and students of William Carey College for making this publication possible. God bless you all!

Mitchell Smith

Ephesians 3:17-21

(above) Mitchell Smith gives out instructions and encourages the staff to step it up a notch in order to meet the next demanding deadline.

Rewind to Table of Contents

Pages 6 and 7

Rewind to Dedication

Pages 8 and 9

Rewind to President's comments

Pages 10-17

Rewind to the Start of the year

Pages 18-35

Rewind to Faculty and Staff

Pages 36-59

Rewind to Features

Pages 60-87
Rewind to Organizations

Pages 88-111
Rewind to Sports

Pages 112-139
Rewind to Classes

Pages 140-145
Rewind to Snapshots

Pages 146-152
Rewind to Ads and Autographs

dedication

Obra Quave

For over 40 years one man has impacted the lives of countless students while working in the William Carey College Department of Theatre and Communication.

In honor of his retirement the 2002-2003 Crusader has been dedicated to Obra Quave.

Quave has received numerous awards for his work with the William Carey College theatre. He established what would become Mississippi's longest-running dinner theatre. Carey Dinner Theatre is about to celebrate its 29th season. Quave was selected as Carey's honoree at the Mississippi Legislature's first Higher Education Day.

In addition to these awards and many others, he received the Sears-Roebuck Foundation award for excellence in teaching.

However, awards and recognitions are not all he will be remembered for. Quave has had a permanent impact on the hearts of all his students.

"He has impacted me so much. He has taught me respect, not only for other people but for the art of theatre. He is a very special man," Kevin Jackson, senior theatre major, said.

Jackson's feelings were echoed by numerous students, staff and alumni including Jeanna Graves, Administrative Assistant for Communications and Public Relations and Carey alumnus.

"I met Mr. Quave in August of 1992 when I came to Carey to register. Since then I have had the great fortune to know him as a teacher and as a boss," Graves said.

"He has always treated me with respect and working with him in the theatre has been one of the greatest joys of my life. He made work fun and interesting, or at least bearable every day.

"Over the past few years, I have found myself looking at our students and thinking how lucky they are to be taught by a man who truly loves theatre and inspires that love in others.

"I can't say enough wonderful things about him. William Carey College is the better for having had this wonderful teacher for over 40 years. His absence will be noticed." -By Mitchell Smith

"The name Obra Quave has been synonymous with excellence in the William Carey College Theatre for more than 40 years. Mr. Quave has labored tirelessly to produce a theatre program at Carey that is known internationally. Last year alone, WCC Theatre was honored with the Governor's Award for Excellence in the Arts, the only college or university in Mississippi to earn that distinction; selected as one of four colleges and universities nationwide to perform at the Kennedy Center American College Theatre Festival in Washington, D.C.; and invited to become the first American theatre troupe to perform at the International Theatre Festival in Slovakia. We wish Mr. Quave well and know that his leadership of WCC Theatre and the Department of Theatre and Communication over the past four decades will be sorely missed by our Carey community."

Dr. Michael D. Chute, Chair, Department of Theatre and Communication

"He has impacted my life in a great way. If it was not for him, I would not be at Carey. He has been like a father to me. It has been an honor to work under him."

Audrea McMillen, theatre major

(above) Mr. Quave performs in the 1966 performance of "A Christmas Carol." (left) Quave helps students load the van as the touring drama troupe prepares for a show in the 1960's. (below) Carey Dinner Theatre 2002 poses with Mr. Quave.

"Mr. Quave was the greatest teacher I ever had."

Jamie Jackson, William Carey alumnus and Broadway performer

"It is impossible for me to say how Mr. Quave has impacted my life. I can't explain how he has taught me so much. He has been a great teacher and friend."

Tiche Wallace, theatre major

President's Look Back

Known as "The Student's President," Dr. Larry Kennedy has already greatly aided in the growth of William Carey College during his time here.

President Kennedy rewinds the hands of time to look back in pride at Carey's past, but he also stops to enjoy the present and moves on to envision the potential of the future.

Kennedy stated, "I think the thing I am most proud of is the fact that we have made a big difference in the lives of students who wanted to receive an education at a Christian college.

"We have spent about $5 million on capital improvements on campus. We have just built our first new building in 25 years, the School of Nursing building. We are remodeling the library.

"We want to continue to do the same thing that we are doing in terms of providing students a quality education. My goal is to eliminate the debt completely and then begin to rebuild the campus—more new facilities, better equipment for faculty and students. That is my vision—we are going to get out of debt and then we are going to drastically change the appearance of this campus."

President Kennedy remains a people person in his interaction with the faculty and staff and the students on campus. He truly understands the gold mine of professors and treasures their hard work and sacrifice.

Kennedy said, "I think the strength of the college is the faculty and they make the difference in the lives of the students who choose to come here. We have an outstanding faculty. They have outstanding credentials and they do a marvelous job in the classroom when it comes to teaching."

Dr. Rebecca Jordan, the chair of the Department of Language and Literature, recalls, "I have taught at Carey for 11 years. During my time at Carey, I have observed the many leadership qualities of Dr. Kennedy as the dean of the Cooper School of Missions and as the president of the college—a good listener, a calm and deliberate decision-maker, a person with a vision and a person of integrity."

Dr. Gene Winters, professor of music, also stated, "Dr. Kennedy has been open to allowing various departments and schools to fundraise and help their own units. The listening lab and computer lab in the Winters School of Music are realities because he allowed us to go out and raise money to do it. He is open to letting us help ourselves and the school."

His influence resides in the college, careers and lives of William Carey students and alumni, also.

Terry Dale Cruse, a senior public relations major, said of President Kennedy, "He's been encouraging and it's been neat to have the opportunity to get to know him through SGA in a way most students don't. I'm excited about where God has brought Carey through his leadership and where (Kennedy) will lead in the future."

Freshman journalism major, Emily Wade, said, "He was very friendly and encouraging. When I called back, he remembered who I was because of some things we talked about when we first met. That was amazing that he actually remembered who I was."

President Kennedy encourages students to rewind the tape of life and appreciate their hard work.

"The mission of William Carey College is to provide students with a quality education that encourages each student to grow in scholarship, leadership and service. I would hope that our students would leave here and continue to grow in scholarship, leadership and service. I think when they get to the end of their days and look back—if they have been serious about scholarship, if they have tried to make a difference in the lives of others—then they will not be ashamed of who they are or what they have done," Kennedy said.

—By Joy Stodghill

(far right) President Kennedy visits with faculty and staff each day as he goes about his daily routine.

Dr. Kennedy proudly supports all Crusader athletic events, including baseball.

President Kennedy is always ready to listen to students or to pose for a picture.

President Kennedy greets friends as he walks around Carey's campus.

(left) David Douglas stops to make a phone call while moving into Bryant Hall.

(above) Lance Baggett and others help girls move their luggage and furniture into Bass Hall.

(right) Donnie Hollis grabs all he can carry from his truck and heads to his new room.

(right) Michael Springstead is excited that his mom stocked him up with Little Debbie cakes.

Carey students move into dorms filled with anxiety and excitement

William Carey opened up the dorms to allow students to move in on Aug. 16. Students from Ohio, Florida, Brazil, Bosnia, Mississippi and numerous other places made Carey their home away from home.

Returning students were definitely pros at the moving-in process while many freshmen and transfer students were just a little confused. Moving in was an emotional experience for all. Patty Amason, a freshman, said about moving in, "I was nervous. It was new and I did not know what to expect."

This opinion was shared by freshman Sarah

Pittman who said, "I did not know what to expect because this is the first time for me to be away from home."

The fears of moving in can be expected along with the excitement.

The dorms were filled not only with nervous freshmen but also with those students returning for another year. Ruth Vickers, a resident advisor in Bass Hall, said, "I was returning from a mission trip. Coming back to school was like culture shock for me. It took me a couple of weeks to get into the swing of things." --By Rachel George

"It was so exciting, especially to be out of my house."

Monica Alexander

(pictures) Bass Hall residents steadily stream toward their cars as they move into their dorms.

(right) Jennifer Dingler and Jerome Taylor serve drinks at the BSU-sponsored Coke wagon during the Welcome Back Fling.

(below) Karen Carlisle and Meagan Odom represent their SGA positions at the Welcome Back Fling.

(above) The battle of the sexes water relay proved to be one of the more exciting games of the night.

(right) Kristie Sebold and Jeff Watkins fill each other in on their busy summers.

Welcome Back Fling

Carey students, old and new, enjoyed the Welcome Back Fling sponsored by the Student Government Association.

More than 180 students and faculty were present for the event which included games, prizes and SGA introductions.

"It was great to see all the hard work put into this event pay off," Jessica Pinion, SGA President, said.

(above) Students competed in different games, including the pie eating contest, for different prizes.

(left) Matthew Smith and Brandi Beeson show off the decorative signs they made to introduce their SGA position.

Memories in the Making

The 2002-2003 school year began with a multitude of memory-making moments such as moving in, survival weekend and Hawaiian night. These are the events which served as the foundation for “A Year in Rewind.”

(right) Gabrielle Bonner helps herself to pineapples and grapes at Hawaiian night sponsored by her sorority, Gamma Chi.

(above) Picture proof that moving in can be hazardous to your health—Michael Springstead shows freshmen and transfers how it is done—the right way.
(right) One of several survival weekend family groups takes a break to bond in true BSU fashion—with food!!

(left) Mitchell Smith, Brandon Dillon and Tony Rancatore remind us that Miss Carey not the only pageant on campus, as this picture reveals.

(below) Survival weekend took a new twist this year. New students enjoyed service such as painting homes.

(left) Jensigne Bentsen smiles after another round of limbo while Brandi Stogner takes her turn and Alan Burchfield observes their competition.

(right) Terry Dale Cruse works hard to create the perfect Dirty Irishman while Rod Wallace gets the tough job of counting and storing the money.

(below) Heath Slade shares a musical message with Carey students and music lovers at one of many concerts throughout the 2002-2003 school year.

(above) Mitchell Smith feels the beat as he accompanies Alan at one of this year's popular Thursday night coffee house concerts.

(right) Bethany Festervand and Chasity Smith sing from the heart at karaoke night in Common Grounds. Karaoke is one of the many traditions in Carey's coffee house.

Rewind to a Common Ground

(above) Lisa Lawrence leads students into a common ground during the praise and worship time of her concert as she praises the Lord with song.

(left) Rich Price joins Lisa Lawrence in praising the Creator. They accept God's invitation to assemble on a common ground of worship among denominations and creeds.

Students come to William Carey from all over the world--Brazil, Bosnia, Colombia and Canada (just to name a few). While such diversity causes strife at times, this diversity bonds as well. This Carey bond finds its way into one building on campus in particular.

The Common Grounds is just that for students from all walks of life. Different tastes converge there--various tastes for coffee and for music.

At Common Grounds residents and commuters go to relax, hang out, study, eat, play and display talent. How many college campuses today can truthfully call their coffee house or any other building "Common Grounds."

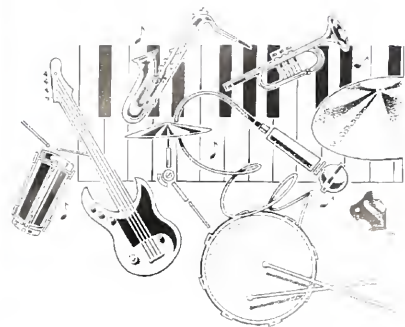

From concerts and karaoke to ice cream socials and movie nights, Common Grounds displays activity and excitement.

When Carey students rewind the tape of their time in school, Common Grounds stands out as a place of joining together to have fun, to share and to bond in a Christian atmosphere.

"A Year in Rewind" celebrates this special common ground. -By Joy Studgill

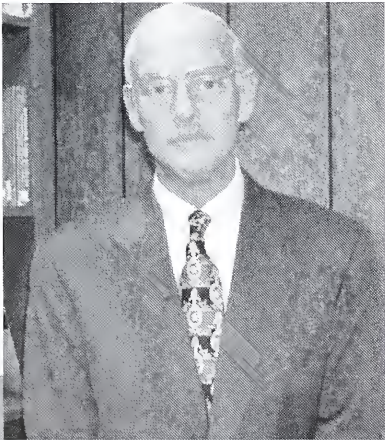

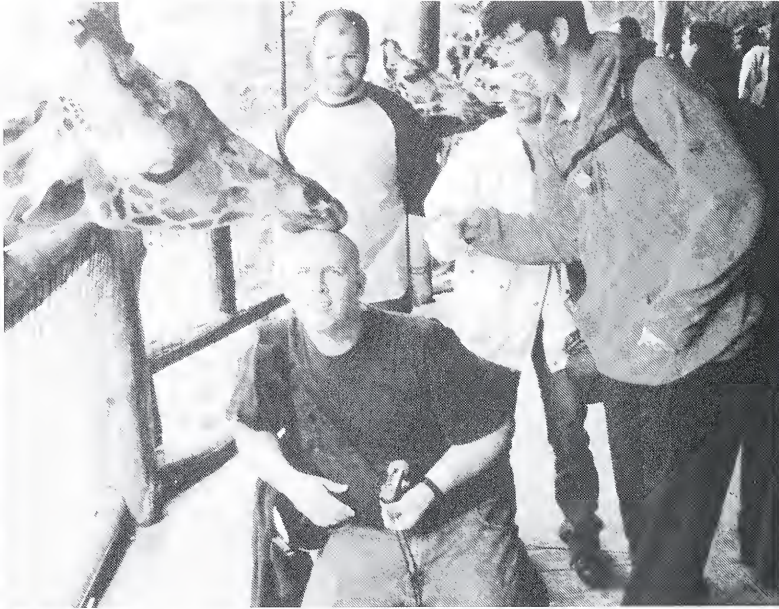

(above and right) Carey students gather in the Common Grounds to sip coffee, play games, hang out and listen to music together.

(below) Mr. Matheny meets a new friend while on a mission trip to Kenya with other students and faculty.

(right) Mr. Huebner gives some last minute instructions to the WCC forensics team.

(below) Tamara Roberts works hard recruiting students in the admissions office.

(above) Phillip Turnquist teaches coast students about the world of business.

(right) Dr. Chestnut gives a lecture to her creative writing class.

Rewind to Faculty and Staff

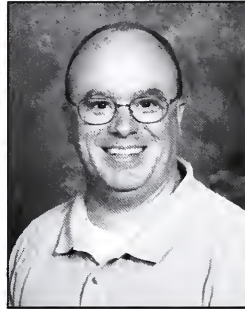

One of the biggest benefits Carey provides its students is its faculty. The WCC faculty and staff are genuinely concerned about the progress of all the students at Carey.

Small classes provide an easy-to-learn atmosphere. Professors at Carey strive to ensure that students grow, not only academically, but spiritually as well.

“Serving as a member of the faculty and as an administrator of the college has been rewarding because of the people.”

Dr. Daniel Caldwell, dean, Cooper School of Missions and Biblical Studies

David Armstrong, Hattiesburg
Director of Admissions

Suzy Armstrong, Hattiesburg
Record's Specialist,
Registrar's office

Gary Blackwell, Coast
Lecturer of Biblical Studies and Assistant Director of the BSU

Una Boswell, Coast
Assistant Registrar

Gerald Bracey, Coast
Administrative Dean and Lecturer of Business

David Brockway, Hattiesburg
Instructor of Business and Director of Network Services

Julie Brown, Coast
Assistant Director of Financial Aid

Laron Brumfield, Coast
Sports Information Director and Assistant Men's Basketball Coach

Dr. Daniel Caldwell, Hattiesburg
Vice President of Church Relations, Dean of the Cooper School of Missions and Biblical Studies, Associate Professor of Religion

Wes Cameron, Hattiesburg
Adjunct Woodwind Instructor

Dr. C. David Channele, Hattiesburg
Professor of Business and Economics
Holder, Thomas Endowed Chair of Business and Economics

Deborah Chatham, Coast
Assistant Professor of Nursing

Dr. Allison Chestnut, Hattiesburg
Associate Professor of Language and Literature

Dr. Kathie Chute, Hattiesburg
Executive Assistant to the President for Development and External Relations and Assistant Professor of Communication

Dr. Michael Chute, Hattiesburg
Associate Professor and chair, Department of Theatre and Communication

Robyn Cilwik, Hattiesburg
Financial Aid Loan Specialist

Dr. Brian Cleveland, New Orleans
Instructor of Religion and
Assistant Registrar

Jim Coleman, Hattiesburg
Instructor of Education and Assistant Technical Services Librarian

Deanna Craft, Hattiesburg
Record's Specialist,
Registrar's Office

Dr. Lisa Cummings, Coast
Assistant Professor of Psychology

Kay Cummins, Hattiesburg
Administrative Assistant,
Rouse Library

Josephine D'Arpa, Hattiesburg
Associate Professor of Music

Cynthia Davis, Hattiesburg
Secretary, School of Education and Psychology

Tammy Dempsey, New Orleans
Lecturer in Social Science and Director of Pre-Nursing and Administrative Services

Susan Dickey, Hattiesburg
Administrative Assistant
to the Registrar

Alex Donaldson, Hattiesburg
Housekeeping

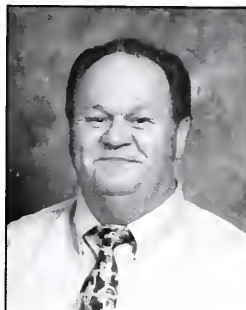

Lydia Easterling, Coast
Administrative Assistant to the Dean

Dr. Martin Ehde, Coast
Assistant Professor of Mathematics

Dr. Robert Ellis, Coast
Associate Professor of Business and Coordinator of Management Information Systems

Barbara Fergusson, New Orleans
Assistant Professor of Nursing

Dr. PJ Forrest, Coast
Associate Professor of Business

Timothy Glaze, Hattiesburg
Instructor of Religion and
Director of the BSU

Roma Graham, Hattiesburg
Bookstore Manager

Jeanna Graves, Hattiesburg
Administrative Assistant for Communications and Public Relations

Grant Guthrie, Hattiesburg
Assistant Director of Development

Dr. Bonnie Holder, Hattiesburg
Professor of Education and Dean,
School of Education and Psychology

Dr. June Hornsby, Hattiesburg
Professor of Education and Director of Student Teaching

Tom Huebner, Jr., Hattiesburg
Assistant Professor of Communication and Director of Forensics

Dr. Carol Jones, Coast
Associate Professor of Psychology and Program Director of Psychology and Counseling Services

Dr. Rebecca Jordan, Hattiesburg
Associate Professor of Language and Literature, chair, Department of Language and Literature

Dr. Hubert Keasler, Jr., Hattiesburg
Associate Professor and Dean, School of Business

Steve Knight, Hattiesburg
Assistant Professor of Physical Education,
Head Coach of Men's Basketball Team and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics

Annette Knobloch, New Orleans
Associate Professor of Nursing

Colleen Lawless, Hattiesburg Administrative Assistant to the President and Executive Vice President/Provost

Dr. Ed Leonard, Hattiesburg
Assistant Professor of Education and Director of Student Life

Dr. Miroslav Loncar, Hattiesburg
Associate Professor of Music and Artist-in-Residence

Tim Matheny, Hattiesburg
Instructor of Theatre

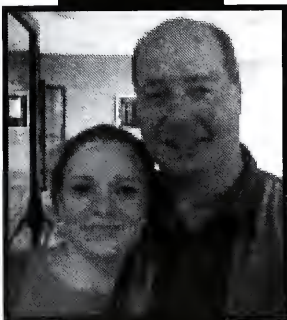

Shar McBride, Hattiesburg
Secretary, School of Music

Linda McCoy, Coast
Secretary, School of Nursing

Sandra Meeler, Hattiesburg
Administrative Assistant,
School of Business

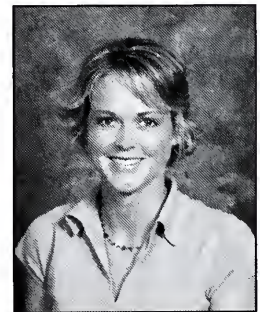

Dr. Nancy Metts, Coast
Associate Professor of Education

Dr. Bitsy Miller, Hattiesburg
Assistant Professor and Interim chair,
Department of Education

Audrey Morgan, Hattiesburg
Director of Student Activities

Jessica Neal, New Orleans
Administrative Assistant,
School of Nursing

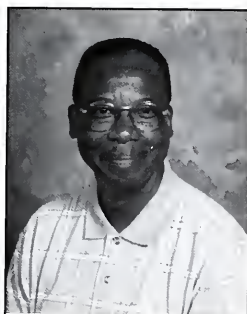

Debi Ogle, Hattiesburg
Bookstore Associate

Dr. Van Oliphant, Hattiesburg
Professor of Business, Executive Vice President and Provost

Dr. Eugene Owens, Hattiesburg
Assistant Professor in Education and Music

Dana Phillips, New Orleans
Assistant Director of Financial Aid,
Business Office and Bookstore

Rebecca Pierce, Hattiesburg
Administrative Assistant
to the Registrar

Brenda Pittman, Hattiesburg
Assistant Director of Financial Aid

Margot Quave, Coast
Adjunct Lecturer of English

Missy Ready, Hattiesburg
Secretary, Student Services

Nancy Reeves, Hattiesburg
Switchboard Operator

Stacy Reeves, Hattiesburg
Assistant Professor of Education

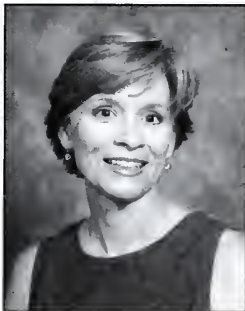

Dr. Connie Roberts, Hattiesburg
Associate Professor of Music

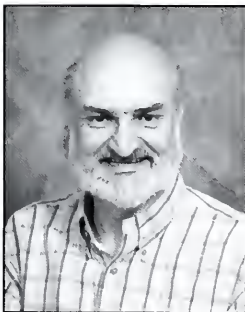

Felecia Robinson, Hattiesburg
Student Accounts Representative

Lynn Singletary, Coast
Assistant Professor of Biology

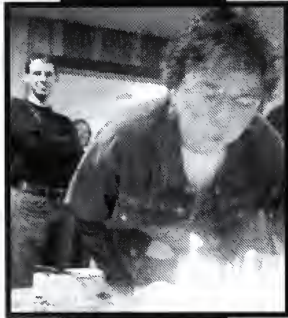

Harold Sumners, Coast
Bookstore Supervisor

Dr. Glen Swetman, Coast
Professor of Language and Literature and Writer-in-Residence

Diane Taylor, Hattiesburg Administrative Assistant for Development and External Relations

Barbara Tillery, Hattiesburg
Coordinator, Desktop Publishing

Phillip Turnquist, Coast
Assistant Professor of Business

Cathy Van Devender, Hattiesburg Registrar

Dr. Mary Ware, New Orleans
Professor of Nursing and Dean,
Fair School of Nursing

Donna Wheeler, Hattiesburg
Director of Alumni Relations

Dr. Milton Wheeler, Hattiesburg
Professor of History

Dr. Janet Williams, Coast
Professor of Nursing,
Director of Nursing

Mari Wirfs, New Orleans
Assistant Professor of Nursing

Melinda Youngblood, Coast
Business Office Supervisor
Director, Student Activities

Patrivan Yuen, Hattiesburg
Instructor of Education and
Technical Services Librarian

(below) Freshmen, Brittanie Roderick and Alma Sehie, sport crowns at Coffee Talk at the home of Senora Maqueda.

(right) Master of Ceremonies, Eric Bean, breaks it down on the Common Ground's stage during karaoke night.

(below) RA, Ruth Vickers, enjoys cheese and punch during Bass Hall's annual Hawaiian Night.

(above) Tony Rancatore, sophomore history major, gets up on stage during karaoke night...but not to sing.

(right) Nick Gosey, Carey music major, stands with his back to the stage after Monday morning chapel.

Rewind to Features

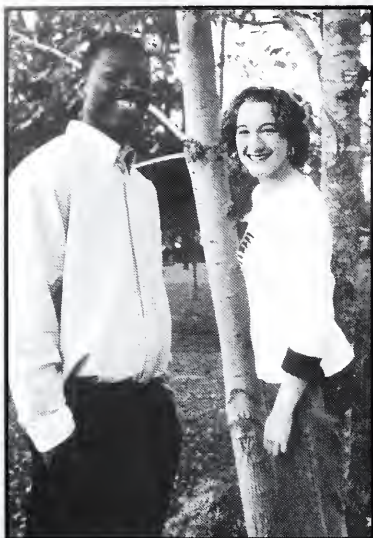

College students leaf Mr. and Miss WCC—the privilege through an annual to look at the of being elected by your peers as past year in rewind. They a class beauty, beau or remember the good times, the favorite—the excitement of being work, the stress and the pride in crowned Carey’s homecoming classes passed and awards won. queen and the new Miss Carey

The honor of being voted 2003...enjoy the look back!

“WE ARE TO A GREAT-EXTENT
WHAT OTHER PEOPLE HAVE MADE US.”

DR. WILLIAM RIVERO chair, Department of Psychology

(below) Freshman class favorites
Sinclair Jackson and Vickie Hall

REWIND to

(Above) Sophomore class favorites Lisa
Lawrence and Mitchell Smith

Class

Favorites

(above) Junior class favorites
Amy Wade and Lance Baggett

(above) Senior class favorites Serita
Clark, not pictured Carlos Rodriguez

(above) Sophomore class beauties Starr Ashley and Lisa Lawrence
Sophomore class beaus Scott Hathorn and Tony Rancatore

(left) Freshman class beauties Heather Head and Jennifer Johnston
Freshman class beaus Donnie Hollis and Chris Walker

(above) Junior class beauties Amy Wade and Sunny Salters
Junior class beaus Logan Abbott and Ricky Breazeale

(above) Senior beauty Serita Clark
Senior beau Alan Burchfield

Beauties

Beaus

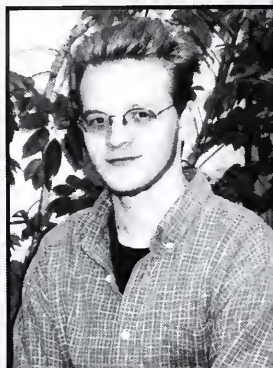

(above) Senior beauty Keri Norwood
Senior beau Nathan Eldridge

REWIND to the Coast

(left) Josiah Burns

(left) Emilia Johansson

(right) Chris Meyers

(left) Stephanie Thompson

(above) Mr. and Miss William Carey College on the Coast
Tim Kinard and Deresa Patrick

Class Favorites

(above) Zach Seymour

(above) Kayla Price

(above) Faith Lepre

(above) Ashley Field

(above) Heidi Mayers

Beauties

Beaus

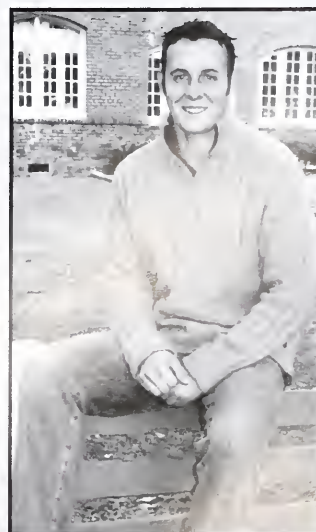

(below) Rhett Goertz

(below) Josh Weems

(below) Mark Soutar

“

This year students got more involved. Audrey's outlook on what homecoming should be made the week a success.
Jennifer Dingler

I liked this year better than last because we had more school spirit. If students will get more involved, next year will be even better.

Matt Robinson

I was very impressed with the organization of this year's homecoming. It seemed that the student body was more excited about the festivities.

Shanna Carey

”

WILLIAM CAREY COLLEGE HOMECOMING

There's No Place Like Home...

Everyone living in or once living in Careyland—munchkins, wizards and good witches alike—joined together Jan. 23-25, 2003, for Homecoming 2003—“There’s No Place Like Home.” Ruby red slippers were spotted. The Great Oz himself was said to have made an appearance and lions and tigers and bears—oh my!—were spotted prowling around campus. Join us as we rewind back to Homecoming 2003—the memories and the magical moments.

COAST MAIDS

Jessica Ducote, Elizabeth Lepre, Heidi Mayers and Deresa Patrick

Elizabeth Lepre poses with her escort for a formal portrait in Bentley Pope.

Deresa Patrick, a senior from the coast campus, takes her walk of fame with her escort during the homecoming court ceremony at half-time of the men's basketball game.

Jessica Ducote and her escort drive up from the coast just for the pictures and homecoming activities.

Jessica Ducote and her escort relax in Bentley Pope before the big homecoming game.

Heidi Mayers, a William Carey junior, smiles for the camera when she stops while her biography is read.

(right) Homecoming maids and their escorts from the coast campus join together for a big group shot.

(below) Deresa Patrick enjoyed a conversation with her escort while Heidi Mayers and Elizabeth Lepre have their own conversation.

(below) Heidi Mayers and her escort listen to her biography as they smile at the big homecoming crowd.

(above) Deresa Patrick and her escort are excited to be at Homecoming 2003.

(above) Jessica Ducote looks out over the fans in the crowd while her escort smiles for the camera.

FRESHMEN HOMECOMING

MAIDS

Erin Bailey and Kate Waters

(top right) Kate with her homecoming escort.

(above) Kate and Tiffany at the Gamma Chi Rush party.

(above) Erin and Darla just "chillin" at Carey Fest 2002.

(right) Erin with her homecoming escort.

SOPHOMORE HOMECOMING MAIDS

Bethany Festervand and Joy Stodghill

Bethany Festervand, a religion major, shares her moment in the spotlight with her family from Louisiana.

Joy Stodghill, a journalism major, spends homecoming day with her parents in anticipation of the big moment.

JUNIOR HOMECOMING MAIDS

Sunny Salters and Janelle Austrom

(left) Janelle and her escort prepare to walk out onto the gym floor

(above) Sunny and her escort walk out onto the gym floor.

(right) Janelle is a major player for the Crusader softball team.

(above) Sunny flies around the rink at the SGA skate night.

SENIOR HOMECOMING MAIDS

Heidi Averill, Valerie Brewer and Heather Wells

(top left) Heather Wells and her father pose for a quick picture before the game.

(left) Valerie Brewer and her father pose for a picture before the homecoming game.

(above) Heidi decorates a mural outside the cafeteria for the homecoming mural contest.

(left) Valerie mixes a milkshake at work in the Common Grounds.

(above) Heather enjoys a nice Coke in the cold weather of January.

(left) Heidi Averill and her escort pose for a picture before heading over to the game.

Heather Wells was crowned the 2003 William Carey College Homecoming Queen on Saturday, Jan. 25, 2003.

Homecoming Queen 2003

Heather Wells

When Heather Wells hears the words "homecoming queen" a small grin appears on her blushing face. The grin stems from Saturday, Jan. 25, when Wells was crowned the 2003 Homecoming Queen of William Carey College.

Wells said she was very surprised she won.

"I was never nominated for anything in high school. So it was kind of unexpected," Wells said.

Along with Wells, Jenny Newman, Baptist Student Union assistant director, said she was excited.

"Heather's crowning thrills me! She is a remarkable lady who well represents the ideal Carey student," Newman said.

Wells is a native of Waynesboro, Miss., and graduated from Wayne County High School. She is in her third year at Carey, majoring in religion and English, and says her biggest goal is to graduate in May.

Wells said she is applying to work after graduation at Interline, a company that assists in bringing Christian music to youth ministers.

"I did an internship with them this summer, and I enjoyed it. It was just hands-on ministry," Wells said.

Her dream is to one day own a Christian production company.

"I want every part of the company to be Christian based," Wells said.

She said much of the time parts of Christian music ministry are not Christian based, and she wants to change that.

This all-for-Christ mindset she possesses is reflected in her favorite scripture, Galatians 2:20, which says "I have been crucified with Christ, and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me."

"I like it because of the fact that we as Christians forget so much of the

"I was never nominated for anything in high school. So it was kind of unexpected"

time that it is God living our life and not us," Wells said.

Before leaving Carey, Wells hopes to finish everything she has started while involved in the Student Government Association and Pi Omega.

Dr. Daniel Caldwell, dean of the Cooper School of Missions, said Wells is an excellent worker.

"She is conscientious of her duties and is respected by her peers. She has a servant's heart that is demonstrated by her involvement in various student organizations and student activities," Caldwell said.

Wells said she will take many memories with her from Carey.

"I will remember the friends I have made. Over three years, you realize who your friends are. I think I have found some core friends that will last me through life."

(above) Wells braves the cold weather to support the Crusader baseball team in an early season game.

When looking back over all the homecoming events, Wells' favorite was the student lunch in the student center.

"It was so cramped that you got to interact with everyone, you couldn't just sit with your clique," Wells said.

Wells has been amazed at the impact of being homecoming queen.

"I walk down the hallway and faculty and staff are congratulating me and telling me what it means to be queen. It is not just a January thing," Wells said. "I look forward to coming back next year and crowning the new queen."

By Mitchell Smith

(right) Wells talks with some other maids and escorts before the homecoming game begins.

(below) Wells takes a big bite of some Hawaiian food at the rush luau.

"I was not expecting to win at all. I thought the pageant would be a wonderful experience and I just wanted to participate."

LaDona Ferguson

(above) LaDona Ferguson, a junior music education major from Laurel, Miss., stunned the audience singing the operatic aria "In Quelle Trine Morbide."

(right) Michelle Sherrell, Miss Carey 2002, passes on the crown to Miss Carey 2003, LaDona Ferguson, after a spectacular parade of six William Carey beauties.

M

Miss Carey 2003

LaDona Ferguson

On Jan. 24, 2003, the crowd packed into the Dumas L. Smith Auditorium erupted in cheers as LaDona Ferguson was crowned Miss Carey 2003.

"I was not expecting to win at all," Ferguson said. "I thought the pageant would be a wonderful experience and I just wanted to participate."

Ferguson's participation resulted in a crown and a title. Along with obtaining the reign as Miss Carey, Ferguson was awarded a $1,500 scholarship, an all-expense paid trip to the Miss Mississippi Pageant, membership to Quest Lady Fitness, $250 certificates from Pageant Complete in Laurel, Elegant Evenings in Laurel and Candy's in Vicksburg and a tanning package and gift basket from Endless Summer Ultrabronz Tanning Salon.

Between running to and fro trying to get the last minute tan, a few dress alterations and a talent rehearsal squeezed into one week, Ferguson ultimately describes her preparation week for the Miss Carey competition as "hectic."

She said the Miss Carey Pageant was a great experience. Every event from learning to walk properly on stage to conducting mock interviews was both informative and helpful. She credits most of her success to the support of her friends.

Ferguson's focus has changed from the possibilities of receiving the Miss Carey title to the experience of the Miss Mississippi competition.

continued on page 54

Ferguson commented on how she and Dr. Kathie Chute, executive assistant to the president for external relations, along with Kelly Blair, admissions counselor and Alicia King, associate director of admissions, have made preparations for mock interview sessions and for choosing vocal selections for the talent competition when she debuts at the Miss Mississippi Pageant.

As a junior music major, Ferguson made music education her platform.

"I want to make sure that music stays in our schools," Ferguson said. "When there is a budget cut that effects the school it is generally within the music department."

Due to Ferguson's recent volunteer work at Edward's Street Fellowship, she has noticed elementary children participate in less than one hour's worth of music lessons per week.

Every Tuesday afternoon, Ferguson shares her talent with the children at Edward's Street Fellowship. Ferguson said she hopes to embed a desire for music within the children so that when those children become older they will have experienced music for themselves and may choose to participate more actively.

Ferguson is anticipating an exciting reign as Miss Carey. Although she considers her road to the Miss Mississippi Pageant exciting, Ferguson realizes that placing in the Miss Mississippi Pageant may take years. For now, she plans to alert the public concerning both the need and the benefits of a school music program and aims to represent William Carey to the best of her ability.

Ferguson wishes to send thanks to the William Carey student body, Dr. Milfred Valentine and the Winters School of Music and Delta Omicron for all their support. She also sends special thanks to Shanna Carey, her roommate and friend.

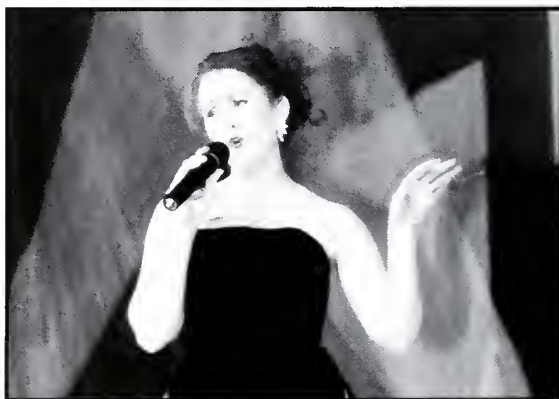

Ferguson looks forward to representing the music department, her friends and William Carey College in the Miss Mississippi Pageant, which will be held in Vicksburg, Miss., in July.

Other participants in the Miss Carey pageant were: Gabrielle Bonner, Andrea Godshaw, Jennifer Kearschner, Audrea McMillen and Jennifer Rawls. Each of the girls represented her sponsor well in the Miss Carey 2003 pageant and will take her memories of that night and the bonds she made with the other contestants with her for the rest of her life.

By Tessa Quave

Jennifer Rawls, a senior biology major from Poplarville, Miss., praises her Creator as she plays the time-honored classic hymn, "Amazing Grace." Jennifer won first alternate to Miss Carey.

Audrea McMillen, a junior theatremajor from Amory, Miss., wowed the audience with her spectacular voice as she sang "Broadway Baby." Audrea received the honor of second alternate to Miss Carey.

Andrea

Gabrielle

Jennifer

Godshaw

Bonner

Kearschner

(above) The Alumni Choir, comprised of graduates, past and present professors and students stand in front of Tatum Court for the historical picture.

Music Homecoming

(above) The alumni choir rehearses. Where are the men?

(above) Jenny Wiggington and Sindi Holman squeeze a smile into their busy rehearsal schedule.

(left) WCC alumnus Donnie Frazure, a current student at Julliard, performs for the alumni music concert.

(below) The original Carpenter's Wood, started in the early 70s, returns to share their unfading talents.

(above) The 200+ voice Alumni Choir rehearses before the big performance.

(above) Parry Williams, WCC graduate, returned to perform with the Symphonic Winds.

(above) Ms. D'Arpa's Madrigals, a rare sight today, were the comic relief at the homecoming concert.

(above) The forming of the Alumni Choir was a chance for students to meet the history of Winter's School of Music.

William Carey College Homecoming 2003

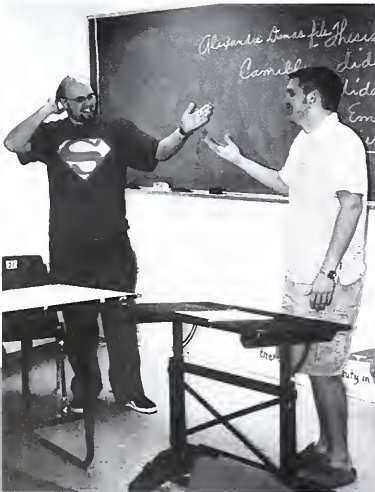

(below) At the Student Activities Fair Kami Stansbury, Haley Moore, Kevin Jackson and Chasity Smith run the Serampore Players table.

(right) Scott Jones presents a message while Mr. Matheny and Mr. Huebner join others to listen.

(below) Brian Drewes and Matt Robinson enjoy a little show-er during the water gun fight at SGA's welcome back party.

(above) Lance Baggett and Chad Hampton laugh at themselves during forensics practice.

(right) Kyle Schenkewitz goes to Bass lobby to cause problems with RAs, Karen Carlisle, Rachel Everett and Megan Rogillio, on the first day.

Rewind to Organizations

William Carey has many things to do and ways to get involved. From chillin' with the BSU to activities planned by the SGA, dull moments do not exist at Carey.

Students' stress levels can be raised with forensics and RA duties. Hitting the Carey rewind button shows numerous organizations packed with service and fun.

“Being a part of many different clubs and organizations on Carey’s campus has given me a sense of worth and family.”

Andrew Dale, music major

Prayer before the show

Jimbo Stewart, Nathan Pardin and Lauren Rasmussen pause for prayer over their work.

Fun within work

Students Tische Wallace, Vickie Hall and Lauren Rasmussen show the fun side of theatre life.

"...out by the rabbit cage"

Jimbo Stewart and Clint Thompson spend a little father/son time "out by the rabbit cage."

Alpha Psi Omega

standing: Josh Penot, technical assistant; Tim Matheny, instructor of theatre; Clint Thompson; Michelle Baxter seated/kneeling: Tische Wallace, Stephanie Abel, Kami Stansbury, Kevin Jackson, Audrea McMillen

Rewind to Theatre

2002-2003 was another wonderful year for the William Carey College Theatre program.

We premiered "Out by the Rabbit Cage," an original play by national playwright award winner Jonathan Pope Evans, in October. This production was entered in the Mississippi Kennedy Center American College Theatre Festival (ACTF) in November and later selected to advance to the regional festival at Savannah, Ga., in February. WCC's production received two strong recommendations at the Mississippi festival.

Kathy Herrington of Oak Grove, Kristen Miller of Purvis and Clint Thompson of Foxworth received Irene Ryan Acting Award Nominations for their work in "Out by the Rabbit Cage."

Clint Thompson of Foxworth, Carrie Ferguson Bellew of Hattiesburg, Lauren Rasmussen of West Palm Beach, Fla. and Stephen Allbritton of Hattiesburg were nominated for Barbizon Design Awards for their design work.

Our second production of the year was "How To Eat Like A Child." Performed at the Saenger Theatre in downtown Hattiesburg in December, this was the 34th year the production was co-sponsored by the Hattiesburg Arts Council.

—by Jeanna Graves

How to Eat Like a Child

The Carey Theatre takes a face-lift and wipes away years to remember "How to Eat Like a Child."

SGA members discuss important business at the weekly 9:15 a.m. Friday meetings.

SGA members plan their events

Audrey takes care of business as usual!

Lance Baggett: "What I'm doing tonight? Ask me."

(below) Meagan Odom and Audrey Morgan enjoy a piece of pizza—or two or three or....

(left) SGA Officers Michael Wilkinson-Chief Justice, Shanna Carey-Treasurer, Jessica Pinion-President, Mandy Tilley-Vice President, Meagan Odom-Secretary

Rewind to

Student Government Assoc.

While at Carey we have the opportunity to become a part of something big. We have the opportunity to support and participate in our successful athletic programs, nationally ranked speech and debate team, nationally honored theatre department, award-laden newspaper staff and the only music therapy program in the state.

However, our success at William Carey depends very much on individual dedication and devotion to this institution. I am pleased to say that this year the Student Government Association has operated under these principles.

Looking back from controversial issues to campus events, such as the Crawfish Boil, Movie Night and CareyFest, this organization has been successful because of the individual hard work and dedication from each and every member. Thank you to each person who selflessly gave long hours and long days with little to no recognition.

As students deepen their ties to William Carey College, they become a part of Carey's tradition of excellence.

The Student Government Association will continue as the voice of the students in maintaining excellence on campus as well as preserving the individual contribution. We are a governing body, offering our services through student leadership.

Cherish your experiences here, because they will shape you into who you will be.

Sincerely,

Jessica Pinion

Jessica Pinion
SGA President

Rewind to Forensics

The William Carey Forensics team continued its tradition of excellence in 2002-2003.

The team always found a way to compete at each tournament. This was evident at their first tournament of the year, the University of St. Thomas Swing, held in Houston, Texas.

Coach Tom Huebner stands with a lady on either arm—his wife, Mindy and daughter, Emily.

Carey placed third overall at a tournament where they had limited success the year before. This was a sign of special things to come from this team.

It's a new year and WCC continued its winning ways at the Sam Houston State University Swing by winning the overall sweepstakes.

This tournament proved to be very successful as various Crusaders experienced what it was like to compete in the Finals.

The team had success in both individual events and debate. One of Carey's debate teams went undefeated in Open Parliamentary Debate.

It seems that every year the WCC forensics team is competing for a National Championship. This year's team is confident that they can win a national championship for William Carey.

Even though the talented Matt Smith graduated, the returning members feel that they have what it takes to carry William Carey forensics to the next level—national champions.

Director Tom Huebner has done another masterful job with pushing the right buttons on this team. The chance he took on this program by leaving an administration job for forensics looks like it will pay off.

William Carey College has again shown that we are not running the race with Harvard and Yale; we are running the race ahead of Harvard and Yale.

Chad Hampton
President

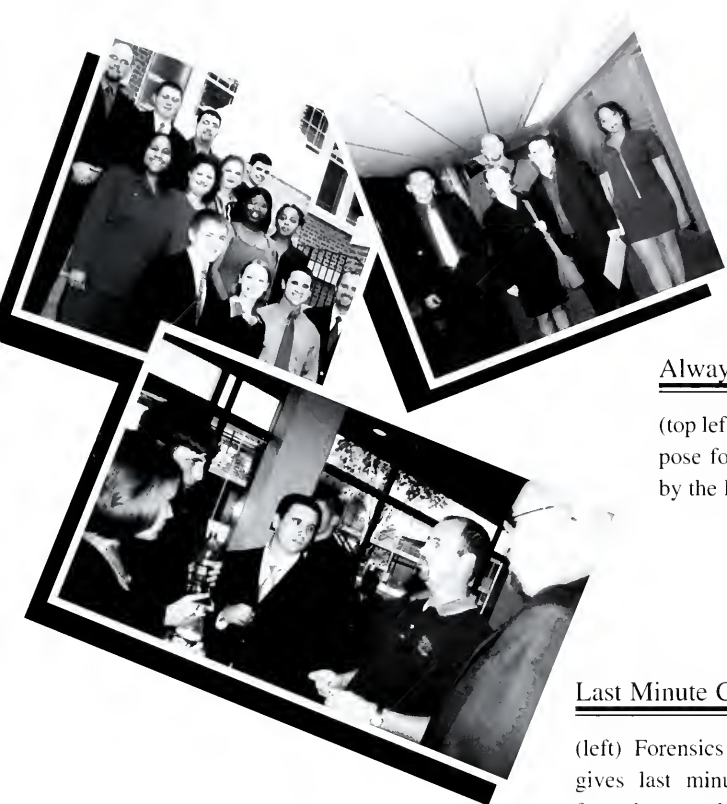

Tournaments Mean Lack of Sleep

(right) Lance Baggett and Chad Rogers help each other catch a little nap between their rounds.

Forensics Makes Friendships

(far right) John Blackmon and Chad Hampton enjoy the many forensics trips taken throughout the year.

Forensics Teams Dress to Impress

(left) Lance Baggett backs up Chad Hampton, Jessica Pinion, Michael Wilkinson and Sylvia Caver as they show their style.

Always a Member

(top left) Members of the forensics team pose for a quick group shot to be used by the Hattiesburg American.

Last Minute Coaching

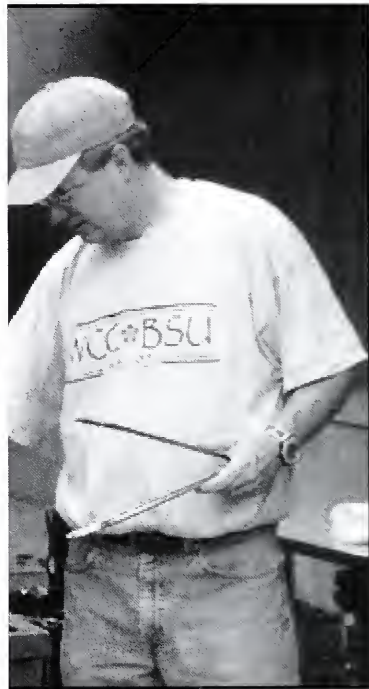

(left) Forensics coach, Tom Huebner, gives last minute instructions to his forensics team before a tournament.

Pi Kappa Delta

back row: Tom Huebner-coach, Chad Hampton, Jamie Goff and Lance Baggett

front row: Michael Wilkinson, Meagan Odom, Sylvia Caver, Jessica Pinion, Vanessa Starks and Chad Rogers

UMM Good!

(above) Tim Glaze fixes lunch on the grill.

Hey Man!

(right) Friends Nathan Sumrall, Chris Moser, Jay Murphy, and Steven Lanclos sit on the steps of Polk Hall.

Need a Hand?

Lance Baggett gets some "helping hands" during Survival Weekend.

We are all Servants of God!

Amy Wade helps serve food during Priority Lunch.

Rewind to BSU

It has been a privilege and a blessing to serve as BSU President for 2002-2003. God has been ever faithful in using our students to impact our campus, community and world. This year has been filled with many new faces, ideas and ministries. It has been very exciting to see God take willing hearts and produce positive fruits.

My goal has been to meet students where they are and to encourage and love them to where they are going. I have been fortunate to serve alongside a team of dynamic students with a wealth of gifts and talents. Each has brought a willingness to serve, a heart for people and a passion to see things done.

My prayer is for students to be open to receive love and encouragement from the BSU and be willing to offer their gifts in service to those around them. I have treasured the privilege of seeing God at work in and through the BSU this year and look forward to seeing the amazing things God has in store for the future. May we be in constant Renovation of our hearts and minds in preparation for what is to come.

Love and Joy in Christ,

Amy Wade

Amy Wade
BSU President

BSU's "Road Rules"

Entering freshmen and transfers learn the ropes during BSU-led Survival Weekend.

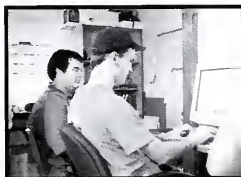

Rewind the news back to the Cobbler

Success is often defined in dollar signs and rungs on the corporate ladder. However, for The Cobbler student newspaper success is defined by progress in service.

Over the last two years, the once black and white, tabloid-sized newspaper has introduced color along with an eye-catching format that captivates readers both in content and design.

The lifeblood of the publication lies in relationships—relationships with faculty, staff and students and relationships among the staff members.

There is no team-building activity more effective than organizing and producing an eight-page broadsheet by a deadline. The relationships formed on the newspaper staff among its members are bonds not easily broken and bonds that otherwise may have never been formed. Without these relationships success would not be possible.

Rocky Pugh, editor in chief, teaches layout.

The Cobbler is meant to be a unifier, a constructor of school spirit, without neglecting the truth of possible errancy on its campus. It is meant to expose problems without attacking individuals. It is meant to be the voice of those who have no voice. The hope is that The Cobbler is what it is meant to be.

A handwritten signature in cursive script, likely belonging to Rocky Pugh.

Rocky Pugh,
editor in chief

Weekly meetings in Lawrence Hall give rise to interesting conversations as the Cobbler staff determines what is newsworthy and what should not be covered. Rocky Pugh, editor in chief, leads all the meetings.

Sinclair Jackson and Henry Jefferson enjoy a meal at the Chutes' home. "Silk" and "Trey," as they are affectionately called, spend the year giving play-by-plays on the sports pages and learning from Alan Burchfield, sports editor.

Andrew Dale, Anne Brinkman and Breck Stapleton relax after finishing a great meal. Andrew balances his music major with his amazing photography. Anne and Breck enjoy pop culture on their entertainment page each issue.

back row: Rachel George, Matt Fondren, Rocky Pugh, Henry "Trey" Jefferson, Sinclair "Silk" Jackson, Andrew Dale, Mitchell Smith and Chris Moser
front row: Tessa Quave, Breck Stapleton, Anne Brinkman, Joy Stodghill, Emily Wade, Amanda Eady, Melissa Knight, Alan Burchfield and Dr. Michael Chute

Then there's Rachel George and Emily Wade. They're roommates and newspaper editors. After seeing each other 24/7, they get a little fractious. They were always a source of comedy in the newsroom.

The paper couldn't come out on time without the drive of Amanda Eady, managing editor. When she gets exhausted, Amanda simply lays down on her bed (the newsroom floor) to edit pages.

The Cobbler newspaper proudly received six honors—two first place, three second place and one third place—at the 2002 Baptist Press Student Journalism Conference in Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 10-12, 2002.

Rewind to Gamma Chi

Gamma Chi is an organization that provides academic excellence, school spirit, grace, knowledge and sisterhood.

Gamma Chi has six members and seven pledges. During initiation this year, all pledges were asked to join the sisterhood. Now having thirteen members, Gamma Chi devotes its time to community service projects.

Gamma Chi also hosts events throughout the year with their Big Brothers in order to socialize and have fun.

We are dedicated to each other as well as our school.

Karen Carlisle
President

Jensigne Bentsen, Brandi Stogner, Kim Hetherington, Kristen Parden and Janna Johnston enjoy a snack during the rush luau.

(on stairs)-Stephanie Brewer, Rachel Everett, Karen Carlisle, Amanda Eady, Melissa Knight and Jessica Pinion
(below)-Kim Hetherington, Erin Bailey, Darla Hollis, Jensigne Bentsen, Tiffany McCallum, Kristen Parden and Kate Waters

The Gamma Chi girls wait in the Missions Plaza to leave for their Halloween Party in October.

Karen Carlisle, Rachel Everett, Gabrielle Bonner, Jessica Pinion, Melissa Knight, Amanda Eady and Stephanie Brewer show the pledges how to have fun during pledge week.

Larissa Parsley, Karen Knapp, Amy Giacone, Emily Snowden and Michelle Walters show off Pi Omega's board for their luncheon during Homecoming.

Rewind to Pi Omega

Pi Omega is a society built upon developing confidence and sisterhood amongst the women of William Carey College. We are an eclectic society with representatives from every department. We strive to help ourselves and others through spiritual growth and guidance.

Throughout the year we accomplished many goals to bring joy and encouragement to others. We have helped in keeping children at Temple Baptist Church, singing Christmas carols to alumni and giving support to members of William Carey's athletic teams.

These activities not only broadened our outlook on life, but also furthered our sisterhood.

We are not just another society or group of friends, but a family.

Kelly M. Martin

Kelly M. Martin

visit us on the web at: careypiomega.kat.gr

Heather Wells gets a big hug from Keri Norwood before the Winter Formal in December.

Top L-R: Corita Jackson, Marleah Williams, Emily Snowden, Karen Napp, Vanessa Starks, Tiffany Lowe, Amy Stevens and Lauren Vanest

Center L-R: Nikki Leister, Jennifer Martin, Heidi Averill, Heather Wells, Rachael Ross, Michelle Walters and Bethany Austin

Bottom: Kelly Martin

Not Pictured: Amy Giacone and Larissa Parsley

Sponsor: Jenny Norwood

Janna Johnston, BJ Stout, Rachel Everett, Kelly Martin and Joe Driver enjoy a friendly group hug while watching friends skate at the SGA-sponsored Skate Night.

Rewind to Sigma Psi Nu

The purpose of Sigma Psi Nu is to instill brotherhood and unity in the hearts of those willing to share ready spirits for the work of Christ at Carey and the surrounding community.

We strive to live and serve in such a way as to have a positive, lasting impact on the hearts and minds of those with whom we come in contact. We undertake all things in prayerful anticipation that our meager efforts will be blessed by God and reveal at least a glimmer of His most perfect love.

The brotherhood that is Sigma Psi Nu prides itself in the many struggles it has overcome since its beginning in 1999. It has been a bumpy and joyful road, but it is one I would not change and would do again.

We serve together to accomplish our goal which is the true mission of all those who call themselves Christians: to work together—despite petty differences in the inner working of each of our individual doctrines of theology—to share with the lost that we, as Christians, care.

Sigma Psi Nu has been a blessing in my life and the lives of its members. We hope to continue sharing this blessing for years to come.

Lars Stensland
President

Logan Abbott and Wesley Smith kick back for a night of football, food and fun in Polk Hall as Sigma Psi Nu brothers.

Josh Fortier isn't amused with the camera while Ryan Parker ponders the situation and Jimbo Stewart flashes his best cheesy grin.

Members: Scott Hathorn—Events Coordinator, Brandon Dillon—Secretary, Ryan Parker, Jimbo Stewart, Lars Stensland—President, Logan Abbott—Public Relations, Nick Parish, Cory Rhea—Treasurer, Josh Fortier and Wesley Smith—Vice President

Pledges: Trey Gunn, Joseph Hill, James Reardon, Terry Dale Cruse, Chris Moser, Nathan Pardin and Tony Rancatore

Lars Stensland peers out to see if the coast is clear while Wesley Smith says "What?" and Corey Rhea gets a surprise.

ΣΨΝ

Carey Connection

Amy Perry and Mary Turner show prospective students how to play pool with pride in the student center and have fun doing it.

Megan Rogillio takes a break between giving tours and writing letters to prospective students to give her feet a rest on the ledge in the Missions Plaza.

Carey Connection is a select group of students chosen to represent William Carey College in a Christ-like manner.

Our main goal is to reach out to students and connect them with William Carey. We do that by phone calls, tours, letters, emails and college fairs. Through our correspondence with the students, we help them sense the caring, friendly, Christian atmosphere at William Carey College.

It is a great blessing to each of us to know that we impact students outside of William Carey and we continuously praise God for that opportunity.

Megan Rogillio

Megan Rogillio
President

Back row: Rachel Doyle-Vice President, Lance Baggett, Nathan Sumrall, Chris Walker and Scott Pope

Second row: Megan Rogillio-President, Mary Turner, Jenny Norwood-Admissions Recruiter and Keisha Beasley

Front row: Lauren Vanesi, Lisa Waltman, Amy Perry, Kim Hetherington and Ruth Vickers-Tour Coordinator
Not Pictured: Alan Burchfield, John Cordova, Tiffany Lowe-Correspondence Coordinator, Larissa Parsley-Secretary and Amy Stevens

Carey Connection pauses to look up for a picture before going to show prospective students the attractive Hattiesburg campus.

Chi Beta Phi

Dr. Randall Harris
Sponsor

Chi Beta Phi is a national honorary scientific fraternity that recognizes excellence in scientific endeavors and encourages participation in scientific fields.

William Carey's chapter works with science fairs at local schools, began an on-campus recycling program and sends medical supplies to missionaries overseas.

Brandon Dillon-President, Karen Carlisle, Janelle Austrom and Jennifer Rawls

Not Pictured: Justin Patterson, Larissa Parsley, Matt Smith, Kristin McGehee, Jamie Robertson, Penny Brownlee, Candace Chambliss and Tre' Courtney

Psychology Club

Ryan Parker
President

Back Row: Belinda Morgan, Grey Strickland, Joyce Green, James Magee, Rashanda McCloud, Patricia Mikel, Marian Howard, Glenda Mason, Robin Aucoin, Allyson Kitchens, Rebecca Acker, Matt Perry, Daniel Perry, Jake Washington, Stephanie Wade, Donice Rayford
Front Row: Keisha Beasley, Jennifer Wilson, Jason Langley, Patricia Mikell, Felisa Hall, Kevin Payton, David Clayton, Alicia Newbill, LaTasha Hayes

Sigma Tau Delta

Tracy Russell
President

Sigma Tau Delta is an international English honor society affiliated with the Association of College Honor Societies. William Carey's branch of Sigma Tau Delta is one of about 600 chapters.

This society recognizes English majors, minors and concentrations as well as congratulating professional writers.

Back: Joy Stodghill, Vickie Dement, Tracy Russell-President and Bethany Renfroe
Front: Lance Baggett-Secretary, Robert Ellis, David Sharp, Serita Clark-Vice President, Sra. Cheryl Maqueda-Sponsor, Tessa Quave-Historian and Larissa Parsley-Treasurer
Not Pictured: Debbie Blackledge, Judy Dedeaux, Jennifer Edwards, Ashley Goff, Jennifer Pitts and Jessica Williams

Omicron Delta Kappa

Karen Carlisle
President

Omicron Delta Kappa recognizes achievement in scholarship; athletics; campus or community service, social and religious activities, and campus government; journalism, speech and the mass media and the creative and performing arts. Emphasis is placed on the development of the whole person, both as a member of the college community and as a contributor to a better society.

standing: Karen Knapp, Nathan Eldridge, Dr. Milton Wheeler, Lawrence Bender, Tim Glaze and Emily Snowden seated: Keri Norwood, Vanessa Starks and Karen Carlisle not pictured: James Reardon and Dr. Dorman Laird

Church Related Vocations

Nathan Eldridge
CRV President

The Church Related Vocations Fellowship is composed of students who have made a public commitment to enter into Christian ministry. The group meets monthly for the purpose of fellowship, worship and learning about the practical concepts of ministry.

Miss. Professional Educators

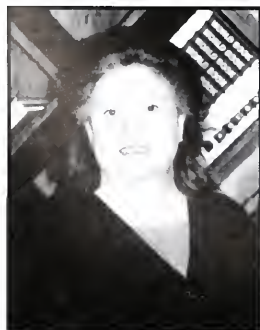

Dr. June Hornsby
Advisor and State President

Back row: Dr. June Hornsby-sponsor, Marsha Moore, Sandy Danzey-Vice President, Erin Russell and Susan Merritt
Front row: Dr. Stacy Reeves-sponsor, Massandra Griffin-Secretary, Deidra Smith-President and Misty Lott
MPE is committed to providing students the best possible education in a safe, orderly, and uninterrupted environment. MPE's emphasis is on educational excellence.

Alpha Chi

Dr. Read Diket
Sponsor

Alpha Chi is a junior-senior honors society with members from all fields of study. Students with a GPA of 3.5 or higher are nominated by faculty for membership into the society. Alpha Chi sponsors academic seminars on campus and participates in educational programs in the Hattiesburg area. Yearly, members travel to a national convention to compete for academic scholarships.

L to R: Dr. Read Diket, Brandon Dillon, Joe Furr, Larissa Parsley, Tre' Courtney, Justin Patterson, Vickie Jones and Dr. Randall Harris
Not Pictured: Penny Brownlee, Karen Carlisle, Candace Chambliss, Ryan Parker and Jamie Robertson

Carey Student Nurses Association

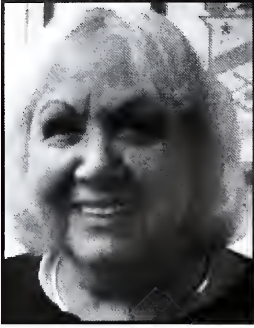

back: Melissa Leggett, Beth Fenn and Winette Denmark front: Elizabeth Broome and Kim Clyde

Annalyn Eakes-president. Deidre Craig-secretary/treasurer. Erica Walters and Miranda Batte

The Carey Student Nurses Association provides nursing students the opportunity to develop professionally and to promote health care in the community.

Delta Omicron

Ms. Josephine D'Arpa
Sponsor

Back row: Kelly McJunkin (2nd V.P.), Ms. Josephine D'Arpa, April Harris and Allyson Kitchens
Front row: Kelly Martin (1st V.P.), LaDona Ferguson (Secretary/Treasurer), Katrina Cox, Stephanie Crumbley, Emily Snowden (President) and Vanessa Starks
Not pictured: Sharnwanika Cotton

M.E.N.C.

Music Educators National Convention

Back row: Lauren Vanest, Nathan Dodd, Shanna Carey (President), Kelly McJunkin, Heath Nails, Akia Hall, Danielle Milsap and Andrew Dale (V.P.)
Front row: Scott Popec, LaDona Ferguson and Mrs. Wanda Saul (Sponsor)
Not pictured: Tony Seal

Chorale

The Chorale is a long-standing tradition at William Carey and has been a mainstay since the Winters School of Music's conception. It is comprised mostly of music students, however, all are welcome. The largest performing group at Carey, Chorale not only performs great literature but also leads worship services in local churches throughout the year.

Dr. Valentine loves his Beany Babies!

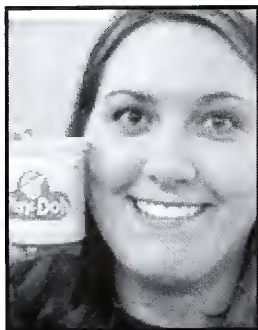

uth Vickers practices for the Christmas program with the guest harpist.

The Chorale performed Benjamin Britten's Ceremony of Carols for the annual Christmas program. Sally Wood, guest harpist, also joined the choir for the performance.

Music Therapy

Cassie Hawthorne
President, WCC &
Regional Music Therapy Organization

Pictured: Rachel Everett, Allyson Kitchens, April Harris, Cassie Hawthorne
Not Pictured: Melissa Dunlap, Gene Lovett, Steven Lanclos, Ruth Vickers, Dr. Paul Cotton-Sponsor

Carpenter's Wood

Kathy Vail
Director of Carpenter's
Wood

Carpenter's Wood from left to right are: Stephanie Crumbley, Becca Gosey, Jenny Wiggington, LaDona Ferguson, Nick Gosey, Brad Stephens, Heather Head and Dale Clancy. Not pictured Sindi Holman.

Symphonic Winds

The Symphonic Winds is the center of the Instrumental Music Department at William Carey. With both music and non-music majors participating, the Symphonic Winds is a diverse group of musicians.

David Young, Director of the Instrumental Music Department

Guitar Ensemble

Front row: Josh Tannehill, Alma Sehic, Britt Bartels, Stephen Lancelos, and Jay Murphy
Dr. Miroslav Loncar, the ensemble's sponsor, is sitting behind the group.

Alma Sehic, exchange student from Bosnia is seen practicing.

FCA

Back: Hal Hood and Jerome Taylor
Middle: Mandy Tilley and Jessica Garriga
Front: Chancey Nicks, Samantha Pittman and Kristin McGehee

The theme of Fellowship of Christian Athletes is "Come and see what you're missing." It is not only for WCC athletes. Everyone has a little of an athlete in them. The main focus is to reach others for Christ.

Resident Assistants

Back: Shane Reynolds, Nathan Eldridge, Terry Dale Cruse, Lars Stensland, Ryan Gore, Rocky Pugh and Britt Johnston
Front: Dusty Little, Dewey Watkins, Corey Rhea, Michael Wilkinson, Tony Rancatore and Geoff Hawthorne

Far Back: Karen Carlisle and Amanda Stauner

Second Row: Ondrea Davis, Megan Rogillio, Ruth Vickers, Lisa Lawrence and Rachel Everett

Third Row: Stephanie Hardy, Kelly Martin, Heather Wells, Valerie Brewer and Renee Estes

Front: Heidi Averill and Brandi Beeson

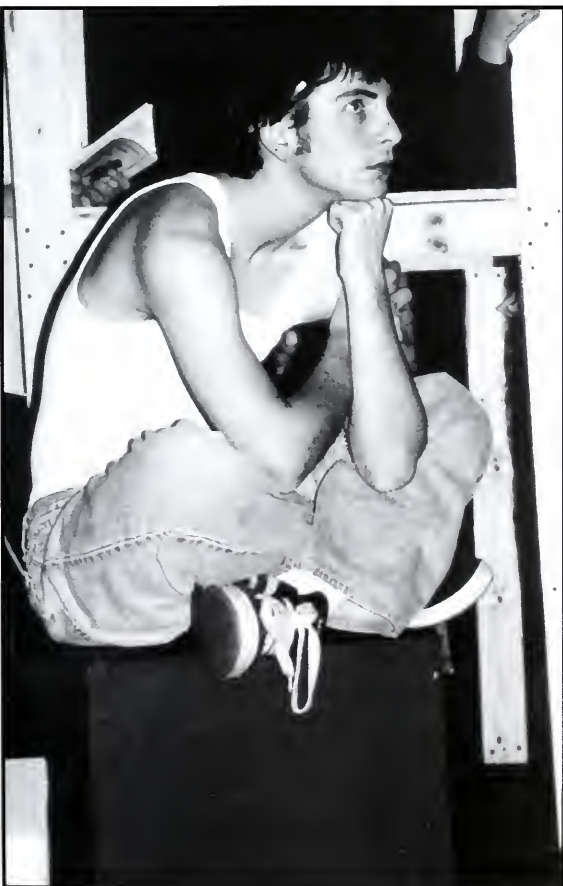

Rewind to Memories of Organizations

(left) Dr. Michael Chute, Rocky Pugh and Alan Burchfield meditate on creation during a worship time on the way back from Nashville.

(below) Andrew Dale watches Jay Murphy concentrate on his guitar strings during a pep band performance at a basketball game.

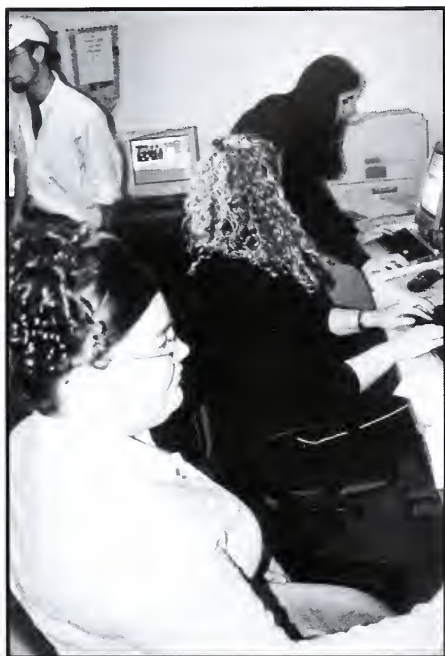

(above) John Collins shows Amy Perry the ropes in the Admissions Office on a typically busy day of recruiting.

(left) Meagan Odum practices for Forensics during one of their many practices since she knows that practice makes perfect.

(left) Josh Rivero listens intently during rehearsal for the Theatre Department's production, "How to Eat like a Child."

(above) Tessa Quave, Rachel George, Chris Moser and Emily Wade work hard to put out the next paper.

(below) Kara Hanks, Kelly Martin, Allen Turnage and Jennifer Dingler break it down during a basketball game.

(above) Hope Henderson and Jill Albritton enjoy some good food at BSU-sponsored Priority Lunch.

(left) Brandi Stogner, Jansigne Bentsen and Lisa Lawrence smile between bites at a rush party.

(below) Joseph Hill and Corey Rhea try to stay warm while selling tickets for the winter formal.

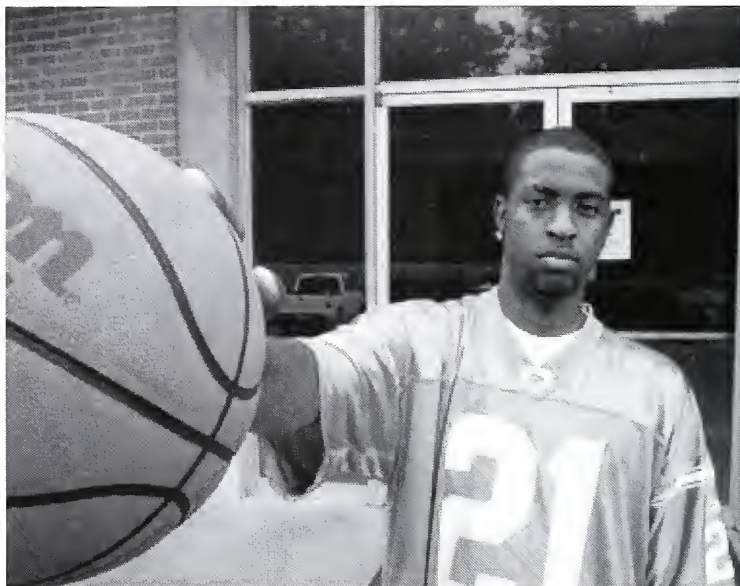

(above) Emily Wade shows pride in the work she does for the newspaper.

(left) Amy Wade grins mischievously during her work in the BSU. What are you up to, Amy?

(below) Braxton Robbins worked hard for the Crusader basketball team this year.

(right) Carey is well known for its outstanding soccer team. Here a player takes a rest after a hard practice.

(below) The Fish try to move the ball down the field against the Spitfires.

(above) The highly-coveted toilet bowl trophy is presented to the men's and women's flag-football champion each year.

(right) Carey students enjoy exciting baseball games during fall and spring.

Rewind to Sports

As we look back on a year of Crusader sports, many memories come to mind. The thrill of a last-minute upset or defeating a rival have left a sense of school spirit in each of us.

College and intramural play brought much excitement and awe to the eyes of all watching the game, whether it was baseball, soccer, basketball, golf or flag-football.

"William Carey has given me the opportunity to play in front of my family and just be closer to home."

Corey McKinley, WCC basketball player

William Carey Soccer Going for the Goal

(below) Warren Budde brings the ball down the field against the University of Mobile at the Popp's Ferry Complex in Biloxi.

SUN HERALD Photo by JOHN FITZHUUGH

(above) William Carey College midfielder Andrew Barron battles a Thomas University midfielder during the first half of their NAA playoff game at the Popp's Ferry Soccer Complex in Biloxi.

SUN HERALD Photo
By JOHN FITZHUUGH

Front (l to r): Zm Green, Nick Baggetta, Jose Villegas, Brian Ross, Daniel Cookmeyer, Andrew Barron and Jeremy Gunn
Middle: Oleg Cickanov (Assistant Coach), Rob Montgomery, Kevin Boyce, Barry Farrell, Luke Hamilton, Kirk Williams, Joey Rathke, Neil Kelly and Josiah Burns
Back: Ryan Wood, Kable Nunnally, Noel Monaghan, Eddie Noack, Gannon Webb, Colin Hoey, Garrett Hiebert, Mark Soutar, Nick Mulvaney, Jason Schexnaydre, Doug Stovall (Coach) and Oleg Balejev (Assistant Coach)

(left)William Carey's Mairead McLaughlin pulls away from a Belhaven College defender.

SUN HERALD Photo by CARA

(below)William Carey College midfielder Jeremy Gunn, right, tries to shake a tough defender.

SUN HERALD Photo by JOHN FITZHUGH

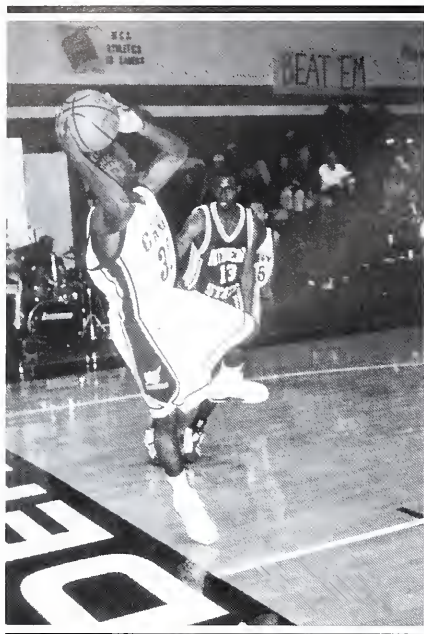

Front (l to r): Jessica Fedrick, Brynn Brewington, Shay Hyatt, Jessica Clavier and Elisa Parker
Middle: Liz Green, Karen Embry, Kristen Murphey, Melissa Sparkman, Treacy Staunton and Kristen Cannon
Back: Kevin Boyce (Assistant Coach), Mairead McLaughlin, Audia Sullivan, Dawn Ross, Venecia Paul, Emilia Johansson, Britney Bonnett, Sinead Finnegan, Sini Pietila and Doug Stovall (Coach)

Venecia Paul, number 18, takes the ball upfield during the first half of Carey's game against Cardinal Stritch University.

SUN HERALD Photo by CHRIS CAPOZZIELLO

One foot in!

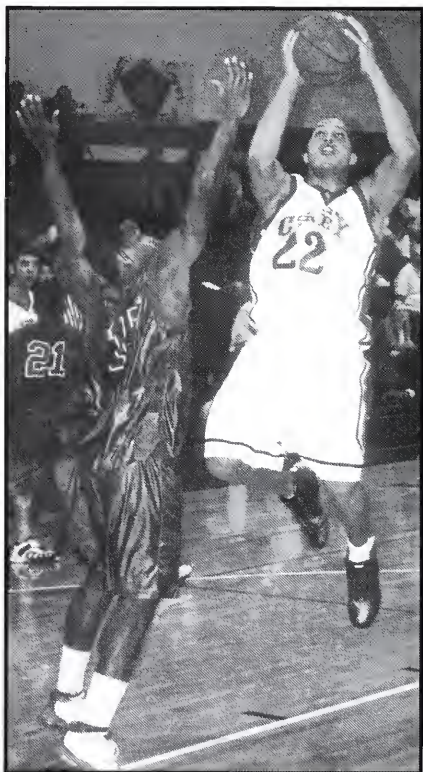

Number 32, Anthony Barnes keeps one foot in long enough to get the ball off to his teammate.

Soar! Corey McKinley soars through the air for a slam dunk while Keena Robins watches from below.

A different view! Looking through the shoulders of Jaeson Marovich and two teammates, the camera spots Blake Anderson guarding the Crusader's goal.

Jump shot!

Number 22, Antoinine Brown, leaps for a shot during another intense moment in a Crusader basketball game in Clinton Gymnasium.

Offense!

Jaeson Marovich, number 44, guards the Crusader's ball from the defender under the home team's goal.

A FREE THROW AWAY

Saders make a statement with new players

"The 2002-03 season has been a learning experience for the

Crusaders who began the year with twelve new players. A tough non-conference schedule did not produce much success, but it helped prepare the team for GCAC play. With only one senior, the Saders have played well since the Christmas break and have been a force in the GCAC.
Several key players will return next season and the future looks bright for the Crusaders"

—Coach Steve Knight

Onward! Crusader basketball players push ahead of their opponents to score a goal.

Back row: Braxton Robins, Jaeson Marovich, Keena Robins, Dante Hardy, Randy McCrory, Corey McKinley and Blake Anderson

Front row: Marvin Flemmons, Antiojuine Brown, Anthony Barnes, M. J. Mayfield, Marquez Moultrie, Phillip Ricks and Marvin Flemmons

Not Pictured: Jerry Jackson, Adrian Patton and Clifton Salter

THREE POINTS AHEAD

Lady Sader's take a jump ahead

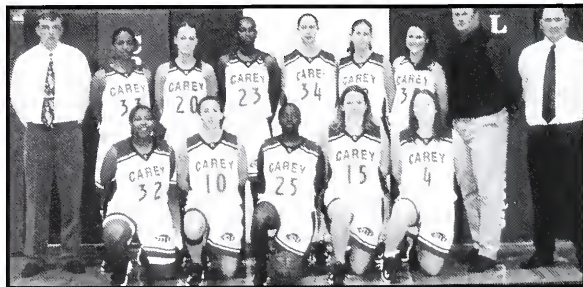

"The Lady Saders were excited about the season with all five starters returning. Senior point guard Jessica Garriga was a preseason all-conference pick, and along with seniors Lori Desilvey and Kristin McGehee lead the way for the Lady Saders. With some untimely injuries the team lost some key games and are in the middle of the conference pack."

By Tracy English
Women's Basketball Coach

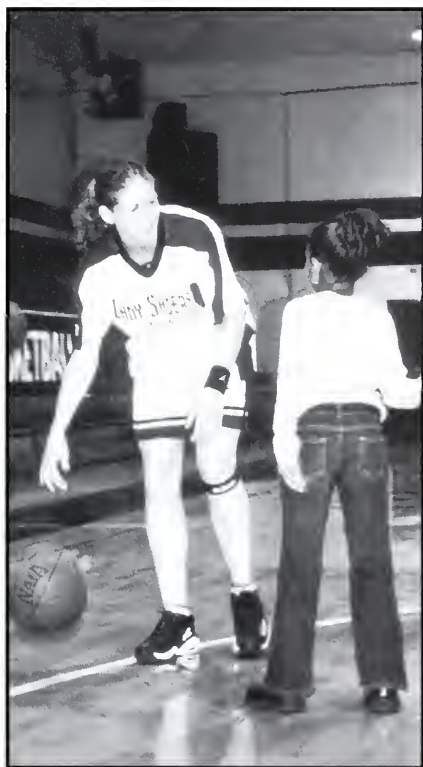

OUCH! Kristin McGehee gets her ankle wrapped by the trainers.

The Team! Back: D. J. Pulley, Eva Lockhart, Kayla Cooley, Krisha Hollingsworth, Lisa Clark, Lori DeSilvey, Rebecca Thompson, Coach Tracy English and Mac McCormick
Front: Gayla Jones, Jessica Garriga, Samantha Pittman, Kristen McGehee and Chancey Nicks

I've Got It! Number 4 Chancey Nicks reaches out to beat her opponent to control of the ball.

Huddle Time! The team huddles up before the start of the game.

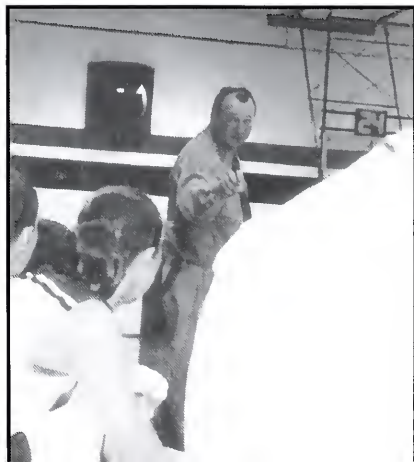

Teach Me! Lori

DeSilvey shows a fan some quick moves.

Ready to Run! Waiting for the free throw to happen, number 20, Kalya Cooley, stands ready to run.

UH HUH!

Coach Tracy English tells the girls to watch the game.

Which Way to Go! Chancey Nicks throws the ball back in the game.

Time to Cheer!

This year the William Carey Cheerleaders have exemplified dedication, hardwork, and cooperation. They were not only on hand to cheer at the basketball games, but they also showed their enthusiastic spirit throughout the campus and the community.

Hard work is a rule rather than the exception to this group.

Cheers, gymnastics and discipline training have helped them develop into an elite ensemble group.

"Initially, my goal was to build the program up, but daily improvement of the squad has given me time to focus on other aspects. I want the community to see how hard we work and how much creativity and time goes into our routines. Coach Angel Kennedy, said.

William Carey Cheerleaders is a group that deserves all the accolades, applause, and recognition that this College and community can bestow.

All season this squad worked so hard as a team, they were all good friends and plan on remaining friends after the season is over.

"I do plan on returning next year, for another exciting year," Kennedy said. This squad helped lead the cheers for the men and women Crusaders.

Support the team!

(below left) Angel Kennedy, cheer-leading sponsor, watches her squad as they cheer.

(below middle) Jennifer Rawls and Logan Abbott get into the game as they cheer the Crusaders on to victory.

(below right) Tim Bailey and Bobby Jones discuss the game during a short break.

Pictured Above:
Back: Tim Bailey, Michelle Sherrell, Angel Kennedy—cheer sponsor, Brooksy Walley and Bobby Jones
Middle: Casie Page, Jennifer Mitchell, Logan Abbott, Jennifer Baker and Josh Fortier Front: Jennifer Rawls

Get up there!

(left) Michelle Sherrell is hoisted into the air by her partner Tim Bailey.

Lets get excited!

(below) Jennifer Rawls and Jennifer Mitchell get pumped up for the game.

Passing on the pom poms!

(above) Tim Bailey takes direction from a future cheerleader.

C arey rusaders

B a s e b a l
l

Back row: Kyle Valentine, Eddie Easley, Josh Johnson, Chad Christian, Charlie Norris, Justin Hennington, Nikki Easley, Andy McCarter and Britt Headerman

Second row: Rusty Latiolais, Chris Dunn, Jeremy Phipps, Coach Bobby Halford, Casey Broussard, Travis Nowell and Joe Driver

Third row: Kyle Keeton, Ryan Jordan, Daniel Parke, Brian Hayes, Eric Adkins and Ricky Breazeale

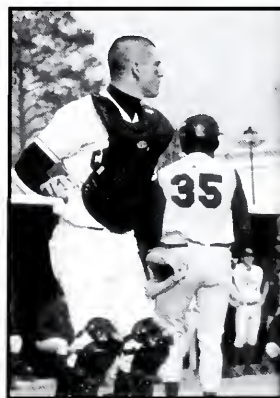

Bottom: Seth Thibodeaux, Jeff Long, Dusty Hillman, Ryan White and Craig Bush

Not pictured: Joseph Davenport and Sam Laurent

(left) Teamwork means support for each other. The Crusader baseball team exhibits this by players encouraging from the bench and congratulating teammates.

(right) Catchers often get overlooked in the excitement of pop flies, double plays and great strikeouts, but Travis Nowell shows that catchers keep it all together.

Rewind to the Ninth Inning

(above) Chris Dunn, a graduate assistant and former Crusader, congratulates Kyle Valentine, a senior outfielder, on a job well done when he arrives at first base.

(above) Britt Hederman, the senior third baseman, makes his way around the bases after a great hit, all the while keeping his eyes on the goal-home plate.

(left) Kyle Valentine makes a dive to back to first base to avoid being tagged.

(left) Sophomore pitcher Charlie Norris, seeks Coach Halford's pitching advice before heading back out to the mound.

(left) Britt Hederman shows his power as he throws the ball to sophomore first baseman Daniel Parke. Teamwork is of utmost importance between infielders and outfielders.

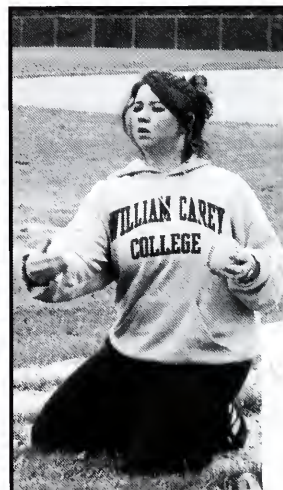

(right) Cerise Anderson fields some balls during batting practice.

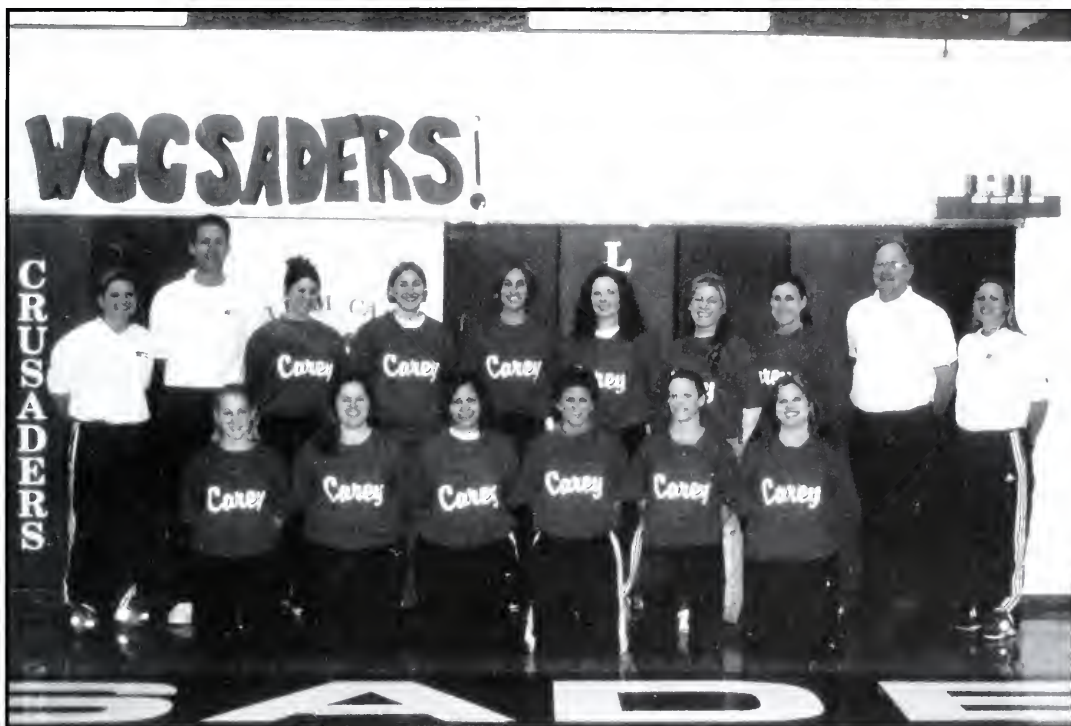

(right) Kristin Parden signals to the pitcher while Janelle Austrom awaits the pitch.

(right) Renee McInarnay gets ready to scoop up a ground ball.

William Carey College Softball

Back row: Coach Robyn Killebrew, Coach Brandon Allen, Kim Hetherington, Sheri Anderson, Helen Hernandez, Aimee Guillot, Amber Zugg, Cerise Anderson, Head Coach Joe Garvin and Coach Jennifer Wilson

Front row: Kristin Parden, Amy McInarnay, Pinky Willis, Amber Powe, Janelle Austrom and Renee McInarnay

Not Pictured: Shay Hyatt

(left) Kristen Parden takes a big swing at the ball.

(right) Shay Hyatt and Cerise Anderson take a breather during practice.

the Season of

GREENS and GOLF

SPRING

The Crusader golf team backs up as Joseph Hill drives off of the first tee at Shadow Ridge Golf Club.

Golf team members Mac McCormick—Assistant Coach, Brian Whiddon, Joseph Hill, Brandon Laird and B. J. Stout prepare to hit the links for a season of long drives, great putts and well-loved birdies. Not pictured: Jason Stoker and coaches Tracy English and D. J. Pulley.

Brandon Laird chips up to the green after a great drive.

Brian Whiddon, Mac McCormick and Brandon Laird watch their buddies play.

Brandon Laird stands back and observes teammate Brian Whiddon's putting abilities.

Rewind to Intramural Football

Fishers of Men (right)

Back: Keisha Beasley, Emily Snowden, Jill Albritton, Misty Bethany and Nikkie Leister
Front: Beth Fenn and Jeanna Aultman
Not Pictured: Jennifer Dingler, Jenny Dobson, Rachel Doyle, Joe Driver-Assistant Coach, Kristin McGehee-Coach, Kaci Miller, Dee Norwood, Mandy Tilley

Funkadelic Republic (below)

Back: Matt Fondren, Alan Burchfield, Rocky Pugh, Eric Smith and Montoom Rhodes
Front: Carlos Rodriguez, Jeff Watkins, Ricky Breazeale and Jarrod Dearman
Not Pictured: Eric Bean and C. J. McBride

Crawdads

Back: Joseph Hill, Brandon Boutwell, Ryan Gore-Coach, Geoff Hawthorne, Ray Cummings, Jason Langley and Ricky Cummings
Front: Rich Price, Kyle Schenkewitz, Tony Rancatore-Coach and Byron Long
Not Pictured: Tracy Cousins and Carey Long

Meat Department

Back: Ira Wells, Sinclair "Silk" Jackson, Mitchell Smith, Trey Spangler, Brian Drewes, John Clark-Coach and Josh Davis
Front: Matt Robinson
Not Pictured: John Collins, Travis Cooper, David Douglas, Shane Mason, Shane Reynolds-Assistant Coach and Adam Wade

Project Chicks (not pictured)

Jensigne Bentsen, Charlotte Capron, I cann Chole, Jennifer Duncan, Kim Hetherington—Coach, Jennifer Johnston, Laura Beth Nowell, Lindy McClaren, Kristin Parden—Coach, Lyda Phillips, Amanda Rainey, Sarah Roth, Brandi Stogner, Amber Sutherland, Brooksy Lee Walley and Rachel Webb

Spitfires (right)

Back: Melody Infinger, Mary Turner, Amanda Eady, Rachel Everett, Karen Carlisle, Megan Rogillo and Audrey Morgan
Front: Gabrielle Bonner, Janna Johnston, Meagan Odom, Rachael Ross, Stephanie Brewer and Jennifer Martin

Athletes (below)

Back, Janelle Austrom, Crystal Simmons, Jennifer McCumber and Helen Hernandez Front: Robyn Killebrew, Meg Fremin, Tabitha Pitre and Vanessa Wechlin

Outlawz (above)

Back: Thomas Grant—Assistant Coach, Goron O'Leary, Jason McDaniel, Brian Cuculla, Kelton Thompson
Front: Dorian Black

Not Pictured: Ben Brantley, Ken Howard, Perry Miley, John Mitchell, Pat Moore, Michael Pierce, Wes Registrar and Jonathan Sunseri—Coach

Avatars (above)

Back, Josh Fortier, Ryan Parker, Terry Dale Cruse, Logan Abbott and Tim Walker
Front: Cory Rhea, Chris Walker, Ernest Pitts and Scott Hathorn

Not Pictured: Wesley Smith and Lars Stensland III

ACTION!

ACTION is part of every intramural football game at William Carey College. Although "intramural" precedes the word "football," this sport is serious!

Top right: Teamates close in around Kelton Thompson, a player for the Outlawz, when he reaches out to snag Tony Rancatore's flag as the Crawdads' player makes a fast break with the ball.

Far right, center: Helen Hernandez holds the ball tightly to protect The Athletes possession of the ball from the Fishers of Men.

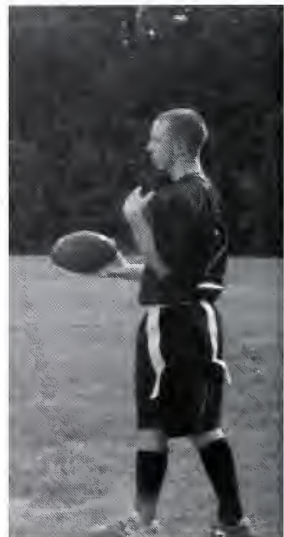

Kelton Thompson, an Outlawz standout, rushes into the end zone just ahead of Avatar defender, Ryan Parker, to score a much-needed touchdown.

Spitfires coach Carlos Rodriguez stands protecting some of the members of his team—Rachael Ross, Gabrielle Bonner and Janna Johnston—while they wait for the game to begin.

Crawdads Brandon Boutwell and Jason Langley face off against Outlawz Brian Cuculli and Jason McDaniel during one of their many competitive, action-packed meetings of the intramural season.

Rich Price demonstrated outstanding defensive and offensive characteristics throughout the season, aiding his team, the Crawdads, through an unbeaten season. They were finally upset in the playoffs though.

EXCITEMENT!

EXCITEMENT exudes from every pore of the bodies of athletes and audience members as fall brings intramural football to William Carey College. This is one sport the school supports. (top left) The Athlete's Robyn Killebrew searches for an open teammate while Misty Bethany, a Fishers of Men defender, rushes her to make her choice. Far left, center: Corey Rhea recovers from a long pass during one of the games of Sigma Psi Nu's team, the Avatars.

(left) Crawdads Ryan Gore and Byron Long have their very own practice style. Ryan takes 10 paces one way while Byron takes 10 paces the other way and then they turn around and shoot—only Byron has a ball, though. Is that fair?

(above) What a beautiful catch!! The Avatars must be celebrating with Ernest Pittman as he catches the quarterback's pass despite his opponent's quick and aggressive defending. Even intramural football has its share of exciting moments!

(above) Head Referee Benji Sessums keeps his eye on Outlawz players Kelton Thompson and Brian Cuculla as Kelton runs the ball down the field looking for ways around the maze of defenders ahead.

(above) Misty Bethany's teammates look on as she runs down the field with the ball in hopes of a great touchdown. She's probably wishing her friend's were blocking for her instead of admiring her extraordinary running abilities.

FHGWHGADS

Season Champions

Back row: Jason Meaux, Rocky Pugh, Amanda Eady, Lee Murphy and Jarrod Dearman

Front row: Amy Meaux, Karen Carlisle, Carlos Rodriguez and Michael Wilkinson

Not Pictured: Alan Burchfield, Matt Fondren, Rachel Everett and Rich Price

SIGMA PSI NU

Back row: Corey Rhea, Scott Hathorn, Ryan Gore, Chris Moser, Brandon Dillon and Logan Abbott

Front row: Josh Fortier, Wesley Smith and Joseph Hill

Not Pictured: Gabrielle Bonner, Ryan Parker and Tony Rancatore

O JOVEM GEORGE E A GALEIRA

Pictured: Derek Armstrong, Brandon Allen, Brandon Boutwell, Tim Walker, Jack Brumfield, Steven Lanclos and Jay Murphy
Not Pictured: Jennifer McCumber, Ashley Vines, Mitchell Smith, Josh Tannehill

HOOVERS

Pictured: Waygon Sanders, Matt Smith, Trey Spangler, Donnie Hollis and Casie Page
Not Pictured: Rachel Doyle, Tim Glaze and Jerome Taylor

(right) Alan Burchfield takes a shot from midfield while Amanda Eady assists.

Above: Logan Abbott dribbles the ball down the field.

Middle: Andy Kidd, Casie Page and Lee Murphy battle for the ball.

Bottom: Andy Kidd takes a goal kick.

(left) Amanda Eady throws in the ball while Casie Page guards her.

(above) Lee Murphy and Rocky Pugh take the ball down the field.

(left) Casie Page tries to slide tackle Carlos Rodriguez.

(left) Brandon Allen and Derek Armstrong get the ball around Joseph Hill.

(below) Jennifer Duncan dips out a spoonful of her ice cream at the ice cream social.

(right) Michael Wilkinson waves his badge for all to see his SGA position.

(below) Matt Fondren scans the crowd picking the next victim of his new watergun.

(above) Shanna Carey makes a milkshake for a Common Grounds' customer.

(right) Heather Head and other students hang out in the Missions Plaza before going to class.

Rewind to Classes

Sometimes in life we meet people we just seem to like. It could be their actions, personality or looks, but as we come to know them better, we call these people friends.

They are the people that help shape us into who we are. As you look at the following pictures, take a minute to remember the laughs, tears and memories your friends brought you.

"The friends I have made at Carey were sometimes the people I least expected to get to know."

Melissa Knight, senior history major

Logan Abbott
Monica Alexander
Brandon Allen
Patty Amason

Robin Aucoin
Bethany Austin
Heidi Averill
Michelle Avery

Hattiesburg Campus

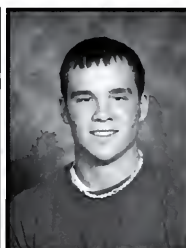

Lance Baggett
Jennifer Baker
Michelle Baxter
Keisha Beasley

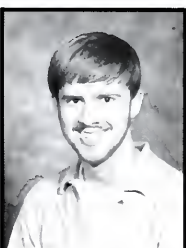

Brandi Beeson
Dustin Bengt
John Blackmon

Gabrielle Bonner
Ricky Breazeale
Anne Brinkman

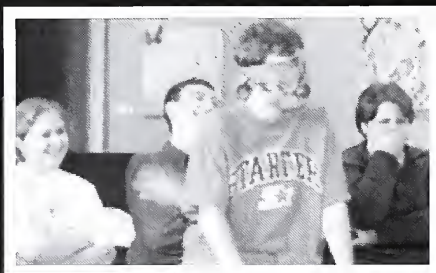

Jack Brumfield
Alan Burchfield
Joey Burns

Misty Byers
Charlotte Capron
Shanna Carey
Karen Carlisle

Sylvia Caver
Renet Clines
Leann Cooley
John Cordova

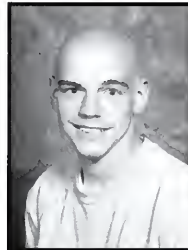

Terry Dale Cruse
Andrew Dale
Joseph Davenport
Brad Davis

Ondrea Davis
William Denius
Brandon Dillon

Brian Drewes
Jennifer Duncan
Mistie Durham

Nathan Eldridge
Renee Estes
Rachel Everett

Beth Fenn
Bethany Festervand
Matt Fondren
Rachel George

Deborah Gerchow
Shane Glover
Vickie Hall
Paula Hardy

Kimberly Hartfield
Scott Hathorn
Geoffrey Hawthorne
Valerie Hawthorne

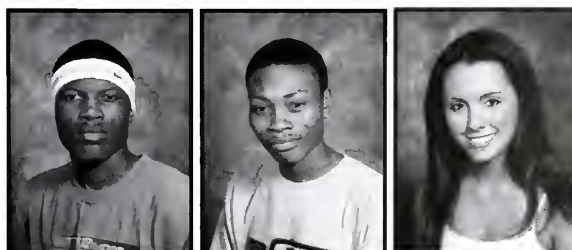

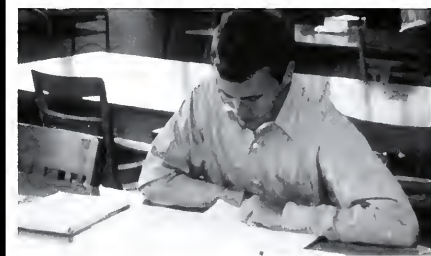

Heather Head
Kim Hetherington
Joseph Hill

Sindi Holman
Melody Infringer
Kevin Jackson

Sinclair Jackson
Henry Jefferson
Ashley Johnson

Victoria Johnson
Janna Johnston
Deena Keasler
Ronald Kitchens

Melissa Knight
Jason Langley
Nikki Leister
Marc Lewis

Tiffani Lowe
Theresa Maily
Kelly Martin
Ashley Mayo

Tiffany McCallum
Linden McClaren
Amy McInarnay

Renee McInarnay
Audrea McMillen
Andy Mills

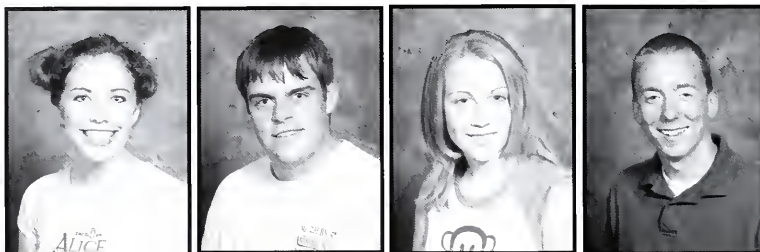

Danielle Milsap
Anna Morris
Karen Napp

Chancey Nicks
Keri Norwood
Laura Nowell
Meagan Odom

Elizabeth Owen
Casie Page
Kristin Parden
Ryan Parker

Justin Patterson
Amy Perry
Tonia Pierce
Jessica Pinion

Sarah Pittman
Jason Poole
Edd Porter

Rich Price
Rocky Pugh
Amanda Rainey

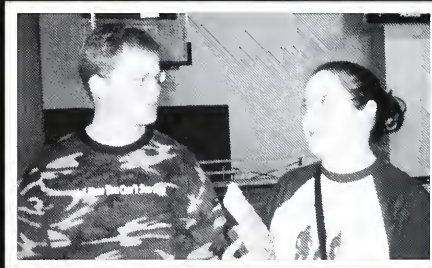

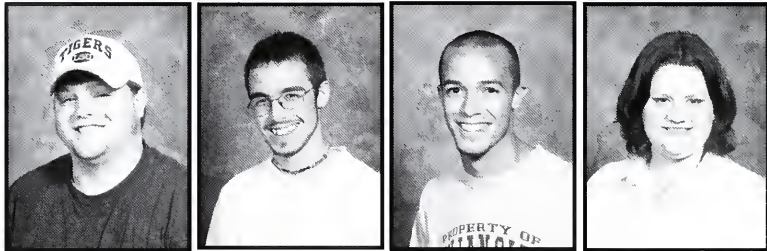

Tony Rancatore
James Reardon
Shane Reynolds

Cory Rhea
Jody Richardson
Julie Roberts
Mary Robinson

Matt Robinson
Michael Roderick
Carlos Rodriguez
Sarah Roth

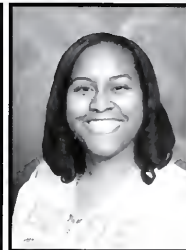

Sunny Salters
Alma Sehic
Ben Skipper
Brent Smith

Chasity Smith
Eric Smith
Matthew Smith

Mitchell Smith
Breck Stapleton
Vanessa Starks

Lars Stensland
Amy Stevens
Jimbo Stewart

Joy Stodghill
 Brandi Stogner
 Katie Sullivan
 Nathan Sumrall

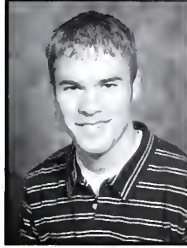

Amber Sutherland
 Karen Tatum
 Jerome Taylor
 Mandy Tilley

Duncan Tucker
 Mary Turner
 Lauren Vanest
 Ruth Vickers

Amy Wade
Emily Wade
Chris Walker
Tim Walker

Lisa Waltman
Kate Waters
Rachel Webb

Heather Wells
Seth Welsh
Michael Wilkinson

Ellen Adcock
Angela Bell
Ashley Bond
Britney Bonnet

Brynn Brewington
Tera Britton
Josiah Burns
Kristin Cannon

Kristi Carlisle
Jessica Clavier
Daniel Cookmeyer
Chris Counett

William Carey

Amanda Craft
J.P. Craft
Susanne Cronier

Wynndi Davis
Penny Dearman
Ricky Easterling

Karen Embry
August Faulkner
Jessica Fedrick
Ashley Field

Sinead Finnegan
Tabitha Fox
Maryann Galle
Elisha Gold

Liz Green
Joanna Hare
Tamika Harris
Stacey Hoff

On the Coast

Jamie Hoffman
Arin Hubbard
Dania Hutchinson
Shay Hyatt

Vontella Jackson
Emilia Johansson
Josephine Johnson
Donna Johnston

James Jones
Jason Jones
Miranda Jones
Tim Kinard

Michelle King
Todd Klusek
Faith Lepre
James Mattoon

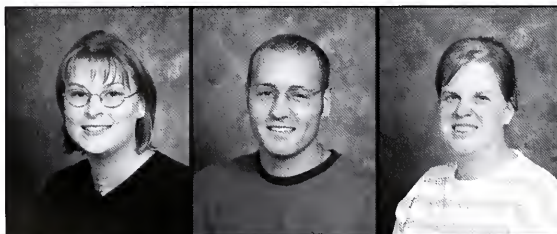

Heidi Mayers
Mairead McLaughlin
Stephanie Moore
Tammy Morgan

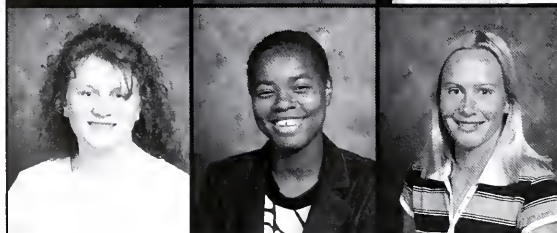

William Carey

Ashley Necaise
Kable Nunnally
Christine Ogilvie

Deresa Patrick
Venecia Paul
Sini Pietila

Tisha Powell
April Reaves
Earl Richardson
Kristina Roberts

Sonia Rushing
Richard Sandberg
Melissa Sparkman
Treacy Staunton

Leslie Steverson
Michelle Stewart
Audia Sullivan
Jada Thompson

On the Coast

Viveca White
Voilanda White
Kirk Williams

Alicia Wilson
Cass Woods
Makgaret Yeomans

William Carey

Sarah Abner

Lxchelle Arceneaux

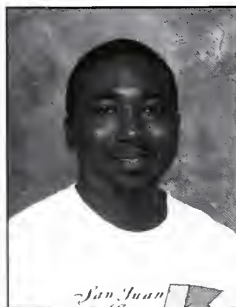

Selena Barthelemy

Rosalyn Bradley

Kianca Brooks

Andre Broomfield

Renee Burdeaux

Julie Castjohn

Mylisa Choate

Jennifer Christensen

Rochelle Clay

Vanessa Coleman

Raven Davenport

Monique Davis

Callie Dufrene

Carole Duplantis

New Orleans Campus

Henry Harros

Keyonia Hartford

Shea Hedrick

Sharell Henry

Darlene House

Douglas House

Ayanna Hunter-Davis

Arrica Jackson

Gentirece Jackson

Janelle Jackson

Sherida Jackson

John Jenkins

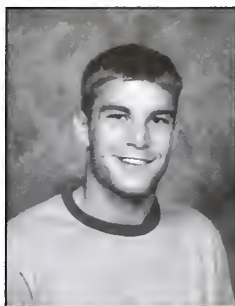

Andrea Johnson

Latoya Johnson

Chantell Jones

Christopher Jones

William Carey

Julie Ketchens

Brandi Lepine

Stephanie Little

Pamela Magee

Brandi Matthis

Kiyan McCormick

Martha McDermott

Jamie Melancon

Adeline Michel

Payton Mikoya

Jackie Nguyen

Arteisha Nicholas

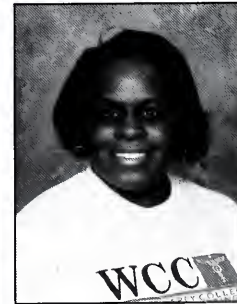

Antoinette Norris

Chiqueta Ogletree

Blanca Palma

Clyde Perique

New Orleans Campus

Rebecca Polk

Keith Price

Kelley Quiles

Jessica Ridgel

Janice Riley

Angelle Rivet

Deena Rodrigue

Angelica Rodriguez

Richard Roper

Deovana Smith

Kendall Smith

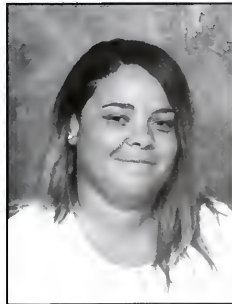

Erica Stovall

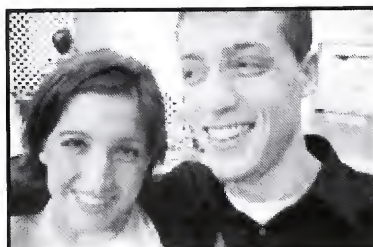

Celestine Taiheicheiaian

Andrea Washington

Catina Williams

(right) Shanna Carey and Nathan Sumrall enjoy a friendly hug during a music party. Friendships flow freely in the music depart-

REWIND—

CAMPUS LIFE

Ginger Williams always has a smile for you.

(left) Michelle Avery, like many Carey students, looks forward to BSU's Priority Lunch on Tuesdays. The lunch provides great music, fellowship and fun.

(below) Professor Cox reviews sketch books with her class.

William Carey:

Where food is at every event

Lance Baggett shows off his next big bite during BSU-sponsored Priority Lunch. Food is a prerequisite for every event—from BSU or SGA events to Mr. Carey to Carey Fest.

(left) Emily Wade tells Joy Stodghill about the great shot she missed. During basketball games the basketball players are not the only ones aiming for the perfect shot. Photographers for The Cobbler also long for that perfect moment when the aim comes at the height of action and presents the most beautiful shot.

(right) Heather Head tries to discover who she is. Looks like you're Ms. D'Arpa, Heather!

(below) Megan Rogillio and Keri Norwood share a friendship hug outside of Bass Hall. Their bright smiles say it all!

Rewinding 25 Years of Excellence

William Carey College on the Coast celebrated 25 years of academic excellence in Gulfport, Miss. The college observed the occasion with a number of festivities.

(right) Caley Stauter announces, "I'm going to do rounds!" You just think her mother, Amanda Stauter, oversees the RAs. Really, Caley runs the show in Bass Hall. With her cheesy grin and playful attitude, Caley steals the show. She's also pretty good at stealing the hearts of the Bass residents.

"I want my refund check!"

REWIND— CAMPUS FUN

Mrs. Vail, it looks like you can expect some visitors later tonight!
Who's taking the picture though?

(right) Karen Carlisle and Kyle Schenkewitz try to stay warm at the Christmas tree lighting.

(below) Amanda Eady and Emily Wade know how to grin and bear it for the camera.

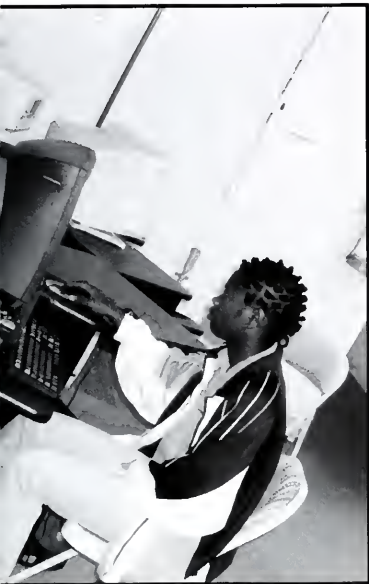

(above) Mitchell Smith serves as a perfect example of good oral hygiene for his peers.

(right) How do you play hopscotch again?

(below) Audi Sullivan makes use of her technology fee.

REWIND—

THE CAMPUS EXPERIENCE

“The friendships that I made have left memories that last a lifetime. I will always cherish the memories and know that my friends are there when I need them.”

Britt Johnston

(right) Kevin Jackson makes an important point while Heather Head and Bethany Festervand enjoy some snacks and James Reardon laughs at the situation.

(below) Jessica and Jessica share a smile before a soccer game.

(above) Ashley is all smiles.

(right) Emily Wade, Sarah Pittman and Sarah Roth cheer as loud as they can for the Crusaders basketball team during an exciting home game.

Rewind to Campus Memories

(above) Joseph Hill smiles at a teammate's effort at putting the golf ball in the cup.

(left) The girls on the third floor of Bass Hall finally drove there R.A. Ruth Vickers, to total insanity. She now thinks she is Indiana Jones.

(right) The coast campus prepares for its annual crawfish boil.

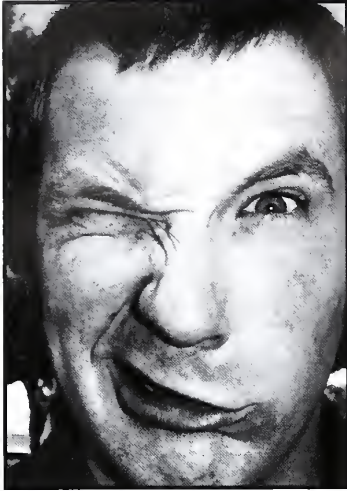

(above) Some coast students and faculty hunt for Easter eggs.

(left) Helen Hernandez and Kim Hetherington smile about a break from softball practice.

Rewind—

Campus Conclusion

(left) Eerragh!

(right) Chris Thorton basks in the sunshine of another beautiful day on Carey's campus.

(below) Stephanie Thompson's all smiles as she receives the award for work study student of the year.

(above) Daniel Adams takes a CLOSE look in the eye of the camera. What do you see in there, Daniel?

(right) Sarah Pittman gives the photographer her signature "look." She's really thinking "Get that thing out of my face."

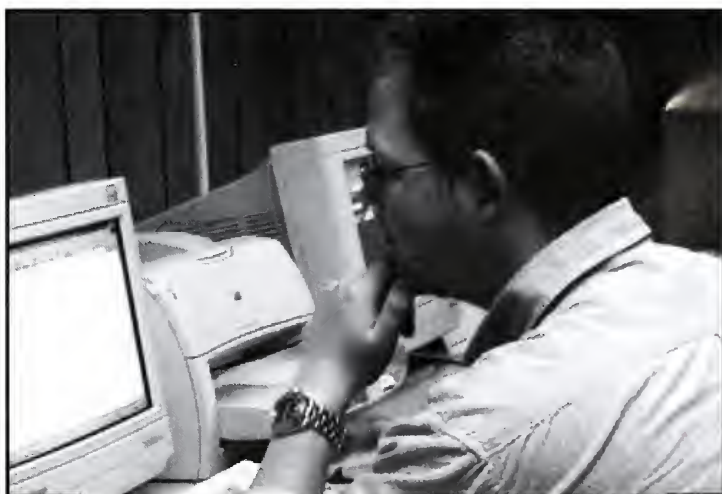

(left) Stephanie Brewer shows her most angelic face to the camera.

(below) I don't want my picture in the yearbook!!

(above) Mairead McLaughlin is thinking about trying Crusader softball rather than soccer.

(above) Forrest Stodghill concentrates on the computer screen during the well-deserved break of one of Dr. Jordan's long classes.

Rewind to Ads and Autographs

As we close the last pages of another annual, we are reminded of all the trials, triumphs, tears and smiles that have been sketched in the pages of our life's story forever.

Producing an annual is always a difficult task. Because of this, the Crusader staff would like to thank all of those who assisted in the annual's completion in any way.

"I thank my God every time I remember you. In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus."

Philippians 1:3-6

We Proudly Support

William Carey College

Domino's

3211 Hardy Street
Hattiesburg, Miss.

$6.99

Student Menu

LARGE 14" 1-TOPPING PIZZA

MEDIUM 12" 1-TOPPING AND COKE

SMALL 10" 2-TOPPING PIZZA & COKE

TWO SMALL 10" CHEESE PIZZAS

CHEESYBREAD, CINNASTIX AND BREADSTICKS

MEDIUM 12" 3-TOPPING PIZZA

264-2996

Temple Baptist Church

Sunday

9:00 a.m. College
Bible Study
10:30 a.m. Worship
6:00 p.m. Worship

1508 Hardy Street
(East Campus)
5220 Old Highway 11
(West Campus)

Wednesday

7:00-8:00 p.m.
Community Groups
8:00-9:15 p.m.
Worship and Bible Study

Thirty-eighth Avenue Baptist Church

Get Active!

*Thirty-eighth Avenue Baptist Church
419N. 38th Avenue
Hattiesburg, MS 39401
Phone: 601.264.3897
Fax: 601.264.3898*

Contact us: 38avenue@bellsouth.net www.forministry.com/39401TEABC

*Sundays
Bible Study at 9:45 AM
Worship at 11:00 AM
Wednesdays
Fellowship Supper at 5:45 PM
College Praise and Worship at 6:30 PM*

WE CAN HELP YOUR KIDS GET TO COLLEGE.
GETTING THEIR LUGGAGE UP SIX FLIGHTS OF DORM STAIRS IS UP TO THEM.

College is a major undertaking. We understand this. That's why, at AmSouth, almost anyone can qualify for a fast, hassle-free student loan. From the paperwork to processing, we work to match families up with the perfect financing. And, once the application is complete, the money will be at the school's financial aid office within a week. So, get moving and call 1-800-858-7822 today.

Understand Needs. Meet Needs. Build Relationships.

AMSouth BANK
Student Lending
amsouth.com

© 2001 AmSouth Bank. Member FDIC. Bank restrictions apply. Contact your AmSouth banker for details. Check with your financial institution for participation.

The 2002-2003 Crusader staff greatly appreciates all those who assisted in the completion of this publication.
Thank you and God Bless You

AUTOGRAPHS

“Lots of people want to ride with you in the limo, but what you want is someone who will take the bus with you when the limo breaks down.” –Oprah Winfrey

AUTOGRAPHS

“The world is round and the place which may seem like the end may also be only the beginning.” –Ivy Baker Priest

Smith/Rouse Library
William Carey College
Hattiesburg, MS

